FRANK CHUA INTERNATIONAL STUDY SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship has been established through the generous donation of SRU alumnus, Frank Chua. Frank came to SRU from Singapore to study history and was a non-traditional aged student. He graduated in 1991, later earned his Ph.D. from Penn State University, and now teaches history at Mansfield University of PA.

This scholarship is open to SRU undergraduate students engaging in a semester-long study abroad program in a culture that is not similar to their primary ethnic culture. An example of this would be a Euro-American wanting to study in Asia or an Asian-American wanting to study in Africa. This scholarship is awarded on a semester basis, and is in the amount of $500 per semester per academic year. Requirements include the completed application form, a resume, a 1-2 page typed essay, one letter of recommendation and a minimum GPA of 2.5. Consideration will also be given to financial need.
