Manure and Pasture Manager

G.A. Position: Manure and Pasture Manager

Department: Storm Harbor Equestrian Center

Supervisor: Courtney Gramlich, CTRS

Job Description:

The graduate assistant will work under the direction of the Assistant to the Dean on a variety of projects. The assignments will include:

- Research and develop a pasture management program
- Develop a manure management plan
- Grow and produce healthy productive pasture
- Further the Equestrian Center in any way possible

Job Functions/Responsibilities:

- Assist Barn Work – feeding/stall mucking
- Assisting and Development and research of future projects for the Equestrian Center
- Supervising volunteer workers along with undergraduates

Desired Qualifications:

- Competency in written expression
- Critical thinking skills and ability to coordinate projects with minimal supervision
- Aptitude and/or experience
- Experience with horse and other livestock, farming
- Equipment operation/maintenance
- Basic Computer Skills

Graduate Student Outcomes:

- Responsibility for organization and coordination of projects with minimal supervision
- Demonstrated competence in project coordination is a value to virtually all future employers
- Increased knowledge of: Pasture Sustainability, Facilities Management, Manure Management

Appropriate SRU Graduate Majors:

- Park and Resource Management

Supervisor’s Expectations:

- 17.5 hours per week for 16 weeks. Exact schedule to be arranged with the supervisor
- Any hours not specifically scheduled should be allotted to the ongoing assigned project (e.g. newsletter, brochure, symposium, etc.) in order to meet the 17.5 hours per week requirement
Contact Information:

Courtney Gramlich, CTRS
Equestrian Director
Storm Harbor Equestrian Center
Slippery Rock University
1 Storm Harbor Drive
Slippery Rock, PA 16075
(724) 738-4015
Courtney.Gramlich@sru.edu