Transfer Students

Transfer students are those students who have graduated from high school and have subsequently enrolled in an institution or other secondary school system. Transfer students are expected to have achieved a satisfactory grade point average (G.P.A.) in their secondary school work. Students, who are on an academic suspension or dismissal from another institution, will not be given consideration for admission for the fall semester of the current year and must first be considered for readmission at the University. An offer of admission to the University does not necessarily imply an assurance of a student’s choice of major.

Application Procedure for transfer students

Certification for admission will be given to those applicants who submit the following:

1. Application for admission and the application fee

2. Official transcripts from each post-secondary institution attended (transcripts are not required if student received and submitted all transcripts from an institution not recognized for purposes of academic transfer as defined within the policies of the University. Transfer students having credits may be denied admission or a reduced number of credits awarded. SRU school nursing students must also submit an official transcript from the institution that provided the general education requirements of their degree. Official transcripts must reflect that the student in the degree. Official transcripts must reflect that the student was in good standing and completed the program.
