FYRST SEMINAR

College is a major turning point in your life!

Many questions will fill your mind about your new university experience, including...

- How can I succeed in my courses?
- How do I get involved in campus activities?

- How will I fit everything into my schedule?
- Where do I go for help?
- What courses should I take?
- How will I make friends?

The FYRST Seminar is a one credit hour course designed especially and exclusively to assist first year students adjust to college life at “The Rock.”

Each Learning Community Cluster includes a FYRST Seminar and there are several FYRST Seminars that are offered independently from the clusters so that any student can choose to enroll.

Nearly every first year student will take a FYRST Seminar in the fall semester.
University Seminar – 3 credit course

What is University Seminar?

- Serves as the entry point to SRU’s liberal studies program
- Stimulating and innovation content areas - Topics will vary across course sections
- Taught in a small seminar setting with a high level of faculty-student interaction
- Meets an Enrichment Requirement

Course Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of intellectual rigor and academic excellence.
- Create, revise, and present ideas in written, digital, and spoken forms.
- Engage with topics of diversity and inclusion.
- Make local and global connections.
- Evaluate information sources, distinguishing unsupported opinions and beliefs from researched claims and evidence.
- Understand how the liberal arts and the SRU general education program relate to the students’ chosen majors.
