

I am The ROCK

A portrait of Laural Dagnon, a woman with short, wavy grey hair, smiling. She is wearing a white collared shirt under a maroon sweater vest and gold hoop earrings. The background is a blurred outdoor scene with greenery and a building.

Job: Program director, SRU Center for Student Involvement and Leadership

Background: A graduate of the University of South Florida in political science and economics. Worked as a stockbroker for a number of years, then joined the University in 1983 as athletic fundraiser, serving as the director of the SRU Athletic Association. I have worked in a number of capacities at SRU, including jobs in Student Affairs, Academic Affairs and University Advancement.

Interests: Sailing, politics, international travel and flying. I have had my pilot's license for a number of years.

Person(s) I would like to have dinner with: The next president of the United States, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

Why I work at The Rock: The students; the excitement and potential for students to change the world. I see it every day.
