

I am The ROCK

Patrick Harvey

Job: Associate professor of criminology and criminal justice and department chair.

Joined SRU: Fall 2007.

Background: I received my doctorate of philosophy in criminology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. I also have a master's degree in social work and a bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Michigan. Prior to coming to Slippery Rock University, I taught criminology and sociology courses at Seton Hill University and at IUP.

Person (s) I would like to have dinner with: Maynard James Keenan, an American rock singer.

Why I work at The Rock: I have been blessed by the relationships I've been a part of, primarily with SRU students and a close second, my fellow faculty and staff. Students at The Rock with their academic inquisitiveness and hope for the future, make this much more than a 'job' for me. The people here have created an environment that both excites and challenges me on a daily basis, and I'm deeply grateful for the opportunity to be part of this enriching experience.
