In its FY2018, the University of Pittsburgh purchased over $650 million of related goods and services. Join us to learn about process and requirements for successfully doing business with Pitt.

This program will help you to:
• Better understand the overall purchasing process
• Learn how to qualify to become a potential supplier to the University
• Create awareness to market & sell within the University community

Representatives from the following purchasing departments will be in attendance: Facilities Management, Housing, Athletics, IT and Purchasing Services.

Thursday December 6, 2018
7:30AM – 10:30AM
O'Hara Student Center
Dining Room - 1st Floor
4024 O'Hara St,
Pittsburgh, PA 15213

Who Should Attend?
• Business owners who are currently doing business with the University but wish to increase their volume
• Business owners that have an interest in working with the University community
