To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.

Technology Workshops .................................................................3
Interpersonal Skills/Management/Cognitive Diversity ..........5
Emergency Preparedness and Prevention .........................6
Health and Wellness .................................................................7
Online Courses - EVERFI .......................................................8
Open Workshops ......................................................................8

To register for a workshop, please call Erin Strain at extension 4334. Pre-registration for all workshops is highly advised as space may be limited.

Notice of Non-Discrimination
Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, religion, age, disability, age/or veteran status in its programs or activities in accordance with Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and other applicable statutes and University policies.
CULTIVATING LIFELONG LEARNERS
Technology Workshops

SAP Fundamentals, Entry and Reporting
Cara Kriebel, senior budget analyst, Finance
Linda Moore, position control manager, Finance
Date and Time: Oct. 3, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: This session is highly recommended for new employees that need to use SAP for budgetary purposes. The workshop will concentrate on SAP access, budget reports and steps for processing a pre-posted budget document. Participants must have SAP access and bring their SAP sign-on information with them.

Windows 10
Dan Brady, information technology technician, Technology Support Services
Allyssa Geer, student IT specialist, Technology Support Services
Dates and Times:
- Oct. 4, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Nov. 15, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- Dec. 6, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Windows 10 has arrived on campus. While there are many new features, much remains the same. For those who used the Windows desktop before, the transition to Windows 10 should be relatively painless, especially after attending this one-hour training to orient yourself with this new operating system.

Travel Expense and Request Voucher
Sarah Trowbridge, accounts payable manager and senior accountant, Accounts Payable Kristine Hoffman, fiscal technician, Accounts Payable
Date and Time: Oct. 10, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Old Main, Room 304
Description: This session will address completing travel requests and expense vouchers, as well as a brief overview of the travel policy.

Introduction to Business Intelligence Reporting
Cara Kriebel, senior budget analyst, Finance
Linda Moore, position control manager, Finance
Date and Time: Oct. 12, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: This session focuses on the reporting tools available using BI. We will demonstrate how to access BI reports, modify provided reports and how to save reports that you develop for your own use. You must have BI access to benefit from this workshop. The BI tab is located in Employee Self-Service. If you have access, you will see a “Business Intelligence” tab. For questions on how to access BI please contact Linda Moore at linda.moore@sru.edu prior to the workshop.

CORE Series
Lauren Moran, director, Student Engagement and Leadership
CORE 101: Getting Started
Date and Time: Oct. 3, 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: CORE is the University’s official online student engagement platform that creates an online community for the SRU campus helping departments, programs and all member-based organizations streamline processes and drive engagement. The platform helps faculty, staff and students to connect and engage with the populations they serve, improves information sharing, minimizes paper usage, tracks co-curricular involvement and allows for data collection and assessment of co-curricular learning. Whether you are a faculty member looking for new ways to engage your students, an adviser to a student organization, a department event planner or just like new technology, this session is for you. Learn the basics of the platform, including organization portals, community events calendar, promotions, file storage and online forms.
Participants will have the opportunity to log into the CORE platform and explore the various features (www.sru.edu/core).

CORE 102: Events
Date and Time: Oct. 17, 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: A hands-on walkthrough of the “Events” module of CORE - one of the most robust tools on the platform. “Events” can be used to collect participant information, create evaluations and assessments, develop rubrics and more. Participants will learn how to create online forms, add form logic, insert photos or video into a form, manage form submissions and generate reports.

CORE 103: People
Date and Time: Oct. 31, 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: A hands-on walkthrough of the “People” feature within the CORE platform. The “People” feature allows organizations to segment members into groups, so you can customize their permissions settings and target communication. Participants will learn how to manage rosters, provide members with administrative permissions, create people groups and add students, faculty and staff to the portal.

CORE 104: Communication and Information Sharing
Date and Time: Nov. 14, 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: A hands-on walkthrough of the various communication tools within the CORE platform. Participants will learn how to create online polls and discussion boards, message members via email lists and text messaging, post news articles and manage files, photos and videos for your organization members and for the campus community.

CORE 105: Forms
Date and Time: Nov. 28, 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: A hands-on walkthrough of the “Forms” module of CORE - one of the most robust tools on the platform. “Forms” can be used to collect participant information, create evaluations and assessments, develop rubrics and more. Participants will learn how to create online forms, add form logic, insert photos or video into a form, manage form submissions and generate reports.

Office 365 Series
Broderick McKenna, IT student specialist
Cassandra Aber, IT student specialist
Office 365 - Module 1
Date and Time: Module 1: Oct. 23, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: email signature, auto reply, establishing specific settings for emails, keyboard shortcuts, adding a photo on your account, setting inbox rules for messages, creating a calendar event through email, organizing the calendar, discovering a calendar and creating a calendar.

To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.
Office 365 - Module 2
Date and Time: Nov. 6, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: getting started with Sway, sharing the Sway, creating a form, reviewing the forms’ responses, getting started with planner and creating a plan.

Office 365 - Module 3
Date and Time: Nov. 20, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: getting started with SharePoint; managing a SharePoint site; getting started with People; and getting started with Tasks.

Office 365 - Module 4
Date and Time: Dec. 4, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: inserting a file into OneNote, keyboard shortcuts in OneNote, drawing on a OneNote page, adding tags to a OneNote, saving documents to OneDrive, sharing OneDrive links, saving a file from Outlook to OneDrive, viewing SharePoint sites in OneDrive and viewing files that were shared with you.

Excel Series: Tips for Productivity with Excel
Cassandra Aber, IT Student specialist
Broderick McKenna, IT student specialist

Tips for Productivity with Excel 1
Date and Time: Oct. 18, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: creating a new worksheet; utilizing office clipboard; deleting/inserting rows and columns; formatting cells; using formulas; applying a number format; creating charts; sorting lists; descending/ascending/alphabetical; freezing panes; and using tables.

Tips for Productivity with Excel 2
Date and Time: Oct. 25, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: importing data; opening multiple worksheets; formatting different worksheets together; referencing data from another worksheet; SumIF formulas; data validation; conditional formatting; and using pivot tables.

Tips for Productivity with Excel 3
Date and Time: Nov. 1, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: Deleting blank rows/columns; absolute referencing; indexing and matching; IF formula; Using and/or functions; combining if, and/or; =SumProduct() formula; creating forms; tracking changes; and protecting a worksheet/workbook.

Tips for Productivity with Excel 4
Date and Time: Nov. 29, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: Learn and master the following tips: text to column; string manipulation; concatenate; replacing formulas with static value; grouping; combining data validation and conditional formatting; Pivot charts; and updating a chart copied to Word/PowerPoint.

Mindful Technology: Strategies for Detaching
Kayla Hersperger, online design and communication specialist, Enrollment Management

Dates and Times:
Oct. 4, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Nov. 8, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Technology has become an absolute essential in our daily lives and because we’re constantly connected, the screen is now also a barrier to living a mindful life. No one understands this more than Kayla Hersperger, as her job requires her to manage SRU’s enrollment management social media accounts. As a yoga teacher and essential oil educator, she strives to find a balance. Mindfulness has been linked to a variety of health benefits, such as decreased stress and anxiety as well as increase sense of self-awareness and regulation of attention. In this session you will learn how to integrate mindfulness strategies to detach from your screen.

Navigating Student Employment - Budget, Hiring, Payroll, and Work Study Programs
Ginny Kopko, associate director, Financial Aid and Scholarships
Susan Patton, management technician, Payroll
Lisa Theodore, clerk typist III, Career Education and Development

Date and Time: Oct. 30, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Maltby Center, Room 105
Description: This session will address the student employment process including assessing needs and budget, posting a position, hiring student workers, eTime reporting and work study programs. We will address misconceptions and differences between federal, state and institutional work study programs. This session is highly recommended for any and all faculty, managers and staff who currently supervise students or may be supervising students in the future.

SEAP for Supervisors
Marcia Kegel, benefits manager, Human Resources

Date and Time: Oct. 30, 2:30-3:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: This course is for supervisors who are interested in learning more about the Commonwealth’s State Employees’ Assistance Program. This program is designed to assist supervisors to help their employees and family members in resolving a wide variety of personal problems that may lead to deteriorating employee job performance. SEAP can be a valuable early-intervention tool as supervisors seek to provide resources to help their staff!

SAP/Understanding the Purchase Process
Patti Doyle, purchasing agent II, Purchasing Office

Date and Time: Nov. 14, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Carruth Rizza Hall, Room 221
Description: This session will address vendor search, creating purchase requisitions including material groups/gl accounts, duplicating lines, split account assignments, attaching documents or URL address, and order status.

To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.
How to Write a Children’s Book and Find a Publisher
Robert Snyder, professor, Elementary Education/Early Childhood
Date and Time: Oct. 12, 1-2 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: This workshop will cover how to develop ideas and themes for children's books, how to set up the proper format for a picture book, how to find interested publishers and how to write and submit query letters to those publishers. Experiences will also be shared about the process from acceptance to print, based on Snyder’s two children’s books published by Blue Marlin Publications.

Showcasing the “Experience the Difference Philosophy by Creating Magical Guest Experiences”
Robert Lagnese, associate director and director of orientation, Admissions
Date and Time: Oct. 17, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Does it really take Mickey-shaped pretzels, a sparkle castle or loveable costumed characters to create brand loyalty? Not anymore. Disney certainly has the market on customer service success, but their style and endearing attention to every guest are easily adaptable to any arena - with a little pixie dust and a zip-a-dee-doo-dah mentality. This playful and informative workshop will teach you how to implement basic yet effective techniques straight from the “Happiest Place on Earth” to enhance your interactions with students, parents and campus colleagues with the goal of building quality relationship and genuine trust in your service. Wouldn’t it be simply magical to exemplify the immortal words of Walt Disney himself, “You reach a point where you don’t work for money.”

LGBTQ 101: An Introduction to Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity and Expression
Jodiann Solito, director, Women’s Center and Pride Center
Date and Time: Oct. 24, 9-10:15 a.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: According to a 2017 Gallup Poll, the percentage of adults in the U.S who identify as LGBT has been increasing and is now at its highest point in the six years of Gallup’s tracking. The increase has been driven almost totally by millennials, whose self-reporting of being LGBT have risen from 5.2 percent to 8.1 percent during that time. Millennials, those born between 1980-1999, comprise the majority of the student population. This workshop will offer basic introduction about the LGBTQ community, including: What do the letters mean? Why is this important? What services are available to assist students?

Hidden Gem Tour
Carolyn Davis, lead facilitator, Leadership Development
Date and Time: Oct. 26, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Description: Discover the hidden gems that help students “Experience the Difference” when they become a part of the SRU community. This van tour will stop at seven of SRU’s best kept secrets: Robert A. Macoskey Center, Leadership Development Center, Storm Harbor Equestrian Center, Ski Lodge, planetarium, Hickory School House and the Old Stone House. At each site you will be greeted by a representative who will give a tour and provide the group with information on how faculty, staff and students may utilize the site and resources. These sites provide an exceptional opportunity for applied learning, student engagement, service learning, research and/or volunteerism. Attendees are encouraged to bring a sack lunch. Early registration is encouraged as space is limited.

Leadership Driven by Strengths
Stacy Jacob, assistant professor, Counseling and Development
Date and Time: Oct. 31, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: The “Leadership Driven by Strengths” workshop will help participants identify their natural talents and develop them into strengths. During the workshop, you will explore your top five strengths provided by the StrengthsQuest Assessment and learn ways to apply them in your daily life.

Grant Writing
Robert Arnhold, professor, Physical and Health Education
Date and Time: Nov. 2, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Attendees will acquire the following strategies at the conclusion of this workshop: ability to describe strategies to identify funding sources for program ideas; ability to define “how to get started in grant writing;” and ability to identify passion, strategy and grant writing skills.

How to Use the Enneagram to Become a More Effective Manager and Leader
John Golden, assistant professor, School of Business and managing director of Sustainable Enterprise Accelerator
Date and Time: Nov. 7, 1-3 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Why do you seem to get along with some people while others annoy you? Why do you see the world the way you do? The Enneagram is a valuable tool to help you learn about and bring out the best in you, your colleagues and staff. In this workshop, you will identify with one of nine personality types and understand why you act unconsciously in automatic patterns. You will begin to see immediate improvement in self-awareness, communication and conflict resolution.

To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@srue.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.
SCUPA/SUA: Who Are They and What Do They Do?
Justin Kleemook, associate director, Residence Life and membership director of SCUPA
Date and Time: Nov. 8, 10-11 a.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: This workshop will provide a look into the SCUPA union. Learn who the union represents, a brief history of unionism and get your questions answered. It will be geared toward anyone who is in SCUPA or anyone who works with SCUPA employees. Fair-Share or Members are also welcome to attend.

Building and Managing your Personal Brand
Allison Peiritsch, assistant professor, Department of Communication
Date and Time: Nov. 13, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Branding describes the ongoing process of establishing a common and desired set of associations about a product or a service. But branding also applies to people. In this one-hour interactive session, you will learn about the basics and benefits of establishing a personal brand whether you’re new to the workforce or already established in your career. You’ll also learn about the many tools that make personal branding easier.

Breaking Down Boundaries to Build Bridges: The Art of Feedback
Joshua Strelbicki, lead facilitator, Leadership Development and assistant executive director of Butler County Alliance for Children
Date and Time: Nov. 19, 9-11 a.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: This interactive workshop is designed to address the two components of feedback crucial to quality personal and professional development: giving and receiving. Types of feedback will be discussed with practical and fun opportunities to understand the art of delivery, understanding what motivates people in those circumstances and how to accept feedback, including criticism, with a measure of grace.

Building Confidence for Engaging Presentations
Deanna Brookens, assistant professor, Department of Theatre
Carolyn Davis, lead facilitator, Leadership Development
Date and Time: Nov. 28, 2-3:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Do your knees start shaking at the thought of speaking in front of others? Are you looking for new ways to engage your audience? During this interactive workshop we will work together to overcome some common fears, share strategies for effective presentations and utilize simple tools to help build your confidence when it comes to speaking in front of others. Whether you’re a long time presenter or a novice, you are encouraged to join us and share in the experience.

Group Dynamics for the Workplace
Jordan Rimmer, D.Min pastor facilitator, Leadership Development
Date and Time: Dec. 4, 1-3 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: This workshop will look at how groups form, how groups function and how groups change. We will use a combination of group theory and family systems theory to consider how people do and do not work together. This will include some teaching, some discussion, and some experiential activities.

10 Tips to a Successful Performance Review
Mark O’Connor, classification and compliance manager, Title IX investigator, Human Resources
Date and Time: Dec. 5, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Participants will learn ten key tips for preparing and delivering a successful performance review. Build your knowledge and confidence when it comes to performance reviews.

AFSCME 101
Susan Elwell, statistical assistant, academic planning, Resource Management and Assessment and president of AFSCME
Date and Time: Dec. 6, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: A workshop for managers/supervisors/faculty that helps them understand the ins and outs of working with employees in AFSCME.

Coaching Performance
Erin Strain, director, Leadership Development
Date and Time: Dec. 7, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: We will explore the key strategies involved in becoming a more effective guide for the people you work with. Whether you work with individuals, small or large groups, these coaching strategies will help you improve. This workshop contains valuable information that can help improve new coaches as well as seasoned. Either way, the strategies within will lead to you becoming a more effective coach.

To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.
Emergency Preparedness and Prevention

Campus Emergency Preparedness, Active Shooter Awareness and Survival
Paul Novak, executive director, facilities, Planning and Environmental Safety
Date and Time: Oct. 19, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: SRU is committed to the safety and health of its students, faculty and staff. As part of an ongoing effort in emergency management and preparedness, the Department of Environmental Health and Safety is presenting a campus-wide training session on emergency preparedness. Attendees will be presented with an overview of emergency planning initiatives to date, including emergency exercises and planned drills, guidance on preparing individual departmental emergency evacuation plans. The session will conclude with training on active shooter awareness and survival.

Safe Drinking Water
Paul Novak, executive director, facilities, Planning and Environmental Safety
Date and Time: Nov. 9, 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Water is essential to human life. Drinking water, also known as potable water, is safe for drinking and food preparation according to standards set forth in the Safe Drinking Water Act. This will be an informational presentation on water sources, technologies employed to render a water supply safe and myths and public perception in reference to what makes water “good” or “bad.”

Health and Wellness

Lasagna Gardening
Brian Ringler, semi-skilled laborer, Facilities and Planning
Erin Strain, director, Leadership Development
Date and Time: Oct. 19, 1-2 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Learn a nontraditional method of gardening that is organic, earth friendly and easy. You will take away the basic information to started building your own lasagna garden at home. No tilling or turning required.

Office Yoga and Meditation
Kayla Hersperger, online design and communication specialist, Enrollment Management
Date and Time: Oct. 23, 1-2 p.m.
Nov. 14, 2-3 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Do you have a sore lower back, stiff neck and tight hips and shoulders from sitting at a desk for eight or more hours? Join Hersperger to learn yoga poses and mediation techniques to practice at your desk, which will help minimize your discomfort throughout the day, making it easier for you to focus on work.

Stress Relief via Nature
Laurel Patterson, clerk typist II, Music Department
Date and Time: Nov. 2, 12:15-1:45pm
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Many studies show that connecting to nature can provide significant physical and mental health benefits. Increased exposure to nature has been shown to improve health, healing, mood and productivity; relieve stress and ADHD symptoms; and even boost generosity. Participants will learn the basics of some of these studies, enjoy simple experiences with nature, and explore practical suggestions to apply at work, home and other places. This session is not just for nature lovers.

Essential Oils 101
Kayla Hersperger, online design and communication specialist, Enrollment Management
Date and Time: Oct. 11, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Nov. 13, 2-3:30 p.m.
Location: Leadership Development Center
Description: Do you want to live a healthier, more natural life? Perhaps you’d like to remove toxic chemicals from your lifestyle and home. Do you need to know about oils. You will learn about how the oils can make a positive impact on your life and how to get them into your home.

Composting 101: Your “How to” Guide to Composting
Shawn Davis, assistant professor, Parks Conservation and Recreational Therapy
Date and Time: Nov. 7, 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Location: Robert A. Macoskey Center
Description: Come learn the basics of composting: turning refuse food and plant material into rich soil. Participants will learn about the process of decomposition vital to composting, how to begin composting at home and work, view a variety of composting systems in operation and participate in building a home/office composting unit. Participants will learn how they can also become a vital part to SRU’s sustainability efforts through composting.

To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.
To register, call Erin Strain at extension 4334 or email at erin.strain@sru.edu. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Diversity Office at extension 2016.

Online Courses - EVERFI

If you are interested in enrolling in one of the online workshops please email Holly McCoy at holly.mccoy@sru.edu to register.

Touchstone: Tools for an Ethical Workplace
Time: 45 minutes
Description: A foundation ethics course to help employees make good choices. The course begins with the perspective that employees know the difference between right and wrong, but certain circumstances can make it difficult to act upon that knowledge. Touchstone helps employees make better decisions by providing insight into competing pressures that affect daily decisions while practicing the overcoming of obstacles to doing what is right.

Diversity: Inclusion in the Modern Workplace
Time: 60 minutes
Description: As the world around us continues to change and become more complex, so does the workplace. Since people, in general, are not comfortable with change or the unfamiliar, employees must learn to collaborate with those who are both like and unlike themselves for maximum individual productivity and organizational effectiveness. This course is designed to help employees successfully work together with diverse co-workers by encouraging respectful behavior, reducing bias and explaining how cooperative can overcome conflict. The course also identifies the challenges and opportunities arising from human diversity and helps employees understand the need for respectful workplace and the barriers that prevent full participation.

Bullying in the Workplace
Time: 30 minutes
Description: Often ignored by employers, workplace bullying is a growing problem. Bullying is four times more common than illegal discrimination and harassment and has devastating long-term effects on both the workforce and on the bottom line. Still, many managers don’t know how to spot or handle bullying and most employees don’t know how to prevent becoming a victim of bullying. This course trains managers and employees to recognize and prevent workplace bullying. Workplace bullying will be defined, its effect on the workplace will be outlined and the types of bullies and reasons for bullying will be examined. Participants will learn practical tips for dealing with bullying and for maintaining a bully-free environment.

Social Media and Your Job
Time: 30 minutes
Description: This course is designed to help employees use social media responsibly and effectively, both at work and at home. By raising awareness of the limits of online privacy, this course helps employees understand the importance of maintaining clear boundaries between their personal and professional lives while online. This course also educates users about certain laws affecting social media use and employment and offers helpful tips for responsible social media use.

Social Media for Managers
Time: 60 minutes
Description: Social media is blurring the lines between our professional and personal lives and it can be a struggle for management to keep up with the constant change. Employees use social media at work and home and these activities can lead to legal headaches and costly losses. To minimize the risks, managers must be savvy about these ubiquitous technologies. This course helps managers identify, respond to and minimize the legal risks posed by social media. Covering best practices for monitoring social media before, during and after employment, the session trains managers how to enforce social media rules within their organization, to preserve organizational secrets and to avoid other losses and regulatory risks that social media can create. It also shows managers how to respond to online bullying and harassment, as well as employee internet abuse.

Open Workshops

- Coaching Managers and Teams Based on Strengths
- Customize trainings/retreats to meet the objectives/needs/goals of your department

Contact Erin Strain at: 724.738.4334 or erin.strain@sru.edu to schedule your customized workshop.