Our Traditional Residence Halls...

Traditional-style residence halls at SRU provide a living environment to students interested in a traditional college housing structure - double occupancy rooms. The greatest asset these buildings offer is the opportunity to know others in the community. It is not unusual to find students grouped together studying, playing video games, sharing a pizza or just hanging out talking about their day.

Both Rhoads and North Hall share their building with University offices on the first floors. Rhoads Hall also serves as the home to the Student Health Center and the Counseling Center. Most recognized for its rounded front entrance, Rhoads Hall is conveniently located between North and Patterson Halls, a short walk from the center of campus.

The first floor of North Hall is home to the University's Admissions and Enrollment Services Offices. Originally built in 1938, this Georgian-style building stands near Old Main and is one of the campus' signature buildings.

Our Residential Suites...

The Residential Suites are known for their exclusive living accommodations, including state-of-the-art wireless internet access and the newly improved student laundry facilities located in all of the Residence Halls. Living in the suites fosters student independence while creating life-long friendships. Our community assistants and staff try to enhance each student's academic experience with creative programming initiatives. These buildings also employ an apartment-style feel without moving off-campus. We have staff available on each floor section to assist students with their transition. All of our buildings are LEED certified and equipped with energy-efficient heating and cooling systems. All of the residence halls are highly secured and equipped with motion-sensor lighting systems and automatic door locks. The room types you see on the left of this page are two examples of rooms that most first year students are assigned to. The room types listed are not guaranteed. Please note, that first year students could possibly be assigned to any room types we have in our residence halls. If you have a specific request, please call our main office line at 724.738.2082 or email mimi.campbell@sru.edu. Requests are not a guarantee and are based on availability at the time of application.

Amenities include:

- A fully furnished living environment
- Semi-private bathrooms
- 100 percent wireless access in all of the Residence Halls and each student can register up to 8 electronic devices for free under their personal ResNet account.
- Snack prep area with microwave and refrigerator
- Individual air conditioning and heat controls
- Suites with a common area also have cabinets, sofa, chairs and end tables

Please note what type of housing you are most interested in (suite vs. traditional).

SRU ON-CAMPUS NETWORKING AND WIRELESS ACCESSIBILITY:

In our residence halls, we pride ourselves on our state-of-the-art computer networking services for all of our on-campus students. This service allows students to have 100% wireless access in all of our residence halls. The quick internet accessibility will also follow students across campus including the academic classroom buildings. Students can use up to 8 devices for free, with the ResNet wireless service. First year students must create their MyResNet account and register their devices before arriving for the academic year. This will ensure that each student will be ready to use the service once they arrive to campus. If students want to register more devices or increase the speed of the service they also have the option to purchase other packages for a minimal cost.

“Incoming students should really look forward to the way the residence halls get you involved. There is always something to do when you live in a residence hall. Whether it's a program or just visiting a friend down the hall.”

LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITIES AT SRU

Living with people that have a similar major makes finding study groups so much easier.

Living-Learning Communities offer the opportunity to live and learn with other students who share their academic, professional and personal interests. The LLCs are one of many ways to help our students achieve. Students who live in these communities have higher GPAs than those who do not.

Research supports LLCs, stating that "...students who are successful academically and engaged socially are more likely to persist and graduate." - Vincent Tinto, Ph.D., Syracuse University

Specialty space:

Most residence halls that house an LLC have a meeting room with resources just for the LLC students.

Locations of LLCs may be subject to change.

Lifelong Learning Experiences

Living in the residence halls will be your first step in lifelong learning. It will be very different from living at home with your parent(s) or guardian(s). Keep in mind your roommate might be very different from your religion, culture, color, race, sexual orientation, have differing political beliefs, study behaviors and sleeping patterns. At Slippery Rock University, we value the diversity of our students and encourage a community of respect and understanding. We are a caring community of learners, which means we expect our students to have an open mind when experiencing new things. We believe learning occurs both in and out of the classroom, and the experience of living with diverse students in the residence halls provides an educational opportunity. We also believe that this learning occurs in each of our Residential Suites and Traditional Hall environments. We hope each student, no matter where you are living, has the opportunity to create and enhance valued multicultural experiences.

Programs and activities offered within Housing and Residence Life that focus on the values of personal development, global citizenship and lifelong learning:

- Living-Learning Communities
- ARHS, NRHH and House Councils
- Floor and hall socials and events
- Service projects
- Many other campus collaborations

Community Life in the Residence Halls

Each Community Assistant is responsible for creative programming initiatives to enhance the student experience. Housing and Residence Life has set forth a unique programming model for our staff to follow. We understand that each of our students' personalities and needs can be very different. We value the differences that the students bring to our communities; therefore, our staff is committed to assessing the needs of each individual to enhance their Slippery Rock University Experience. Housing and Residence Life Programming operates from our strategic plan which is based around our student assessment initiatives. Our community assistant staff is required to plan 3 programs a month for each floor section; we like to keep each student engaged in the residence hall environment.

Incoming students can look forward to making new and everlasting friendships, while also forming their own individuality.

As a first-year student, please be aware of the following:

- Expect to have a roommate.
- We have many different room types available; if you are looking for a particular room, due to cost or preference, then you should complete your housing application ASAP and no later than March 1. After this date, we are not able to make any promises on room type and availability of space.
- If you are planning to commute from your permanent home address, please submit a notarized letter to our office via an exemption request on the My Housing Portal under applications by July 1. Otherwise, all first-year students must live on campus. This is University policy.
- Housing agreements are for the entire academic year.
- You may check your housing assignment in your MyHousing Portal (<https://reslife.sru.edu>). Your intended roommate(s) name and SRU email address will be found here as well.
- LLCs occupy a portion of each building (with the exception of Building A which is all HES). There is no additional cost associated with living in one of these communities. If you apply to an LLC and your major matches the college, you will be automatically accepted.
- Gender-inclusive housing is available. Contact Housing for information.
- If you do not have access to the Internet, please call our office at 724.738.2082 and we will mail you application materials.

Roommate Information

- Roommate requests must be mutual and take precedence over all other preferences, including room style and LLC requests (if applicable).
- If you or your roommate are applying for an LLC, you must be aware that both roommates must apply to and be accepted in the same LLC or the LLC request cannot be honored.
- When making your roommate request, you will only be able to choose from students who have already signed their agreement and paid their housing fee. Names will be found in the drop down box. If you do not see the student you would like to request in the drop down box, it means they have not yet paid their fee or signed their agreement, have a placement already, or are in an LLC which is different than yours.

SUBMITTING YOUR HOUSING MATERIALS AND REQUESTS

While step-by-step instructions can be found on the Housing and Residence Life webpage at <https://www.sru.edu/housing>, basic instructions appear below.

All first-year students are required to live on campus at Slippery Rock University for 2 years. (You will sign another contract for 2024-2025). Students must complete a housing application or apply for an exemption (both in your MyHousing Portal). Changes to your dining plan may be made at the beginning of July via the MyHousing Portal. You will receive an email via your SRU email account confirming that you have completed Step 1.
