ABOUT THE CAMP

Under the direction of Laurie Lokash, Slippery Rock University Head Women’s Volleyball Coach, the Adult Co-Ed Volleyball Camp will provide attendees with instruction from top area high school and college coaches. The camp offers a solid program that combines individual and team skills development, while providing attendees with opportunities to train at their own level.

The SRU volleyball coaching staff is committed to training athletes by providing each player with the opportunity to learn and enhance the fundamental skills of volleyball. We teach the game by providing quality instruction in conjunction with competitive opportunities. The objective of the camp, in addition to skill development, is to emphasize sportsmanship, teamwork and fun.
