Notice
Students are required to abide by the current version of the code, which is always available online at http://www.sru.edu/offices/student-conduct/code-of-conduct. The information contained herein supersedes all previously published Student Codes of Conduct and is subject to change at the discretion of the University. University policies, practices, guidelines, and procedures, which may be updated and approved subsequent to the publication of this document, will in some instances take precedence over the contents of this handbook. To ensure that you have the most current information, you may contact the Office of Student Conduct at 724-738-4985. Print copies of the Student Code of Conduct are available for students to pick-up in the Office of Student Conduct, 008 Patterson Hall, Slippery Rock University, Slippery Rock, PA 16057.

The Slippery Rock University email system is recognized as the official communication medium for receiving related Student Conduct correspondence. Students are responsible for checking all email including any mail from Slippery Rock University that ends up in your “junk/clutter/spam” email filter. This includes information sent during an academic recess.

Slippery Rock University Mission and Vision
The fundamental educational mission of Slippery Rock University (SRU) is to transform the intellectual, social, physical, and leadership capacities of students in order to prepare them for life and career success. Complementary missions are to engage in scholarly activity and professional service.

SRU is committed to serving a diverse student body and empowering anyone regionally, nationally, and internationally who can benefit from its programs and lifelong learning opportunities. Thereby SRU addresses the educationally-related economic, health, environmental, social, cultural, and recreational needs of the communities served by the University.

Diversity Statement
SRU provides an environment that respects, encourages, and promotes the talents and contributions of all. SRU values a community with a shared sense of purpose, where people demonstrate mutual respect and appreciation. SRU values diversity that honors and includes all persons regardless of age, creed, disability, ethnic heritage, gender, gender identity, race, religion, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status in academic and extracurricular endeavor, in the working environment, and in the daily life of the University community.

SRU Student Conduct Philosophy
Members of the Slippery Rock University community have developed a set of expectations for student behavior.

These expectations are contained in the Student Code of Conduct. The Student Code of Conduct outlines the rights and responsibilities of all students, and it provides a fair process to evaluate and respond to allegations of misconduct. SRU Student Conduct strives to educate students and to assist students in becoming successful, and has a primarily educational process.
The educational process is designed to assist the students in identifying problematic behaviors, construct a developmentally appropriate consequence, and connect the student to resources that support future positive decision making.

Application and Scope of the Student Code of Conduct

All students are expected to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the current Student Code of Conduct (Code) and their individual responsibility under it.

The Student Code of Conduct shall be the responsibility of the Council of Trustees and the President or their designee(s).

The Code shall apply to all undergraduate, graduate, and professional students that have matriculated at any of the physical or online campuses of Slippery Rock University (“student”). Students shall also be subject to other university regulations and policies. Students shall be responsible for their conduct from the time of confirmation of acceptance for admission through the actual awarding of degree, even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end, as well as during the academic year and during periods between terms of actual enrollment (including if their conduct is not discovered until after their degree is awarded). “Guest” will include and refer to any person visiting the University.

Jurisdiction

Students are expected to conduct themselves as responsible members of the University community. A student whose conduct violates the law, the rights of others, or jeopardizes the health, welfare, and safety of members of the University community will be subject to disciplinary action by the University, when such conduct takes place on university property or in the course of a University-sponsored or University-supervised activity. This includes international academic programs, study abroad, or sporting events and academic programs sponsored by or held at locations other than Slippery Rock University, or if such conduct otherwise results directly from membership in the University community.

The University expects students to conduct themselves in accordance with the law. Student behavior that may have violated any local, state, or federal law is subject to review by the University and may result in Student Conduct charges being filed against a student by the Office of Student Conduct. When students are found responsible for behavior off-campus that meets both the definition of affecting a substantial university interest and violates the Student Code of Conduct, sanctions will be applied. When the University has been made aware of off-campus misconduct, the Student Code of Conduct may be applied by the University simultaneous to any criminal action taken by civil authorities. However, in some instances final action may be deferred at the discretion of the University until all external processes have been completed or until such time when the on campus procedure may proceed without encumbrance. Student Conduct committed off-campus which affects a university interest is Student Conduct that includes one or more of the following:

1. Constitutes a violation of local, state or federal law. Included (but not limited to) violations of any local, state or federal law.
2. Indicates that the student may present a clear and present danger or threat to the health or safety of others.
3. Significantly infringes upon the rights, property, or achievements of self or others, or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.
4. Is detrimental to the educational interests of the University.

Any off-campus student behavior that affects a university interest violates the Student Code of Conduct and is subject to disciplinary action following standard university procedures.

Students are advised that standards and procedures other than those set forth in this code may more appropriately apply to a given dispute or situation. The University determines which policies and procedures to use.

The SRU conduct process on campus runs parallel to the criminal justice process through the court system. They are two separate processes. Therefore, a student may face charges through police in the criminal justice system, and at the same time be called in by SRU’s Student Conduct office or Residence Life (if the alleged incident happened in the residence halls) to address the alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct for the same incident. Please note that the Office of Student Conduct receives reports from the University Police, Borough Police, and PA State Police, and calls students in via SRU email to address the alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

Filing Procedures

Any member of the University community who believes that a violation of the Student Code of Conduct has occurred may file a conduct referral with the Office of Student Conduct. The conduct referral can be found online: https://sru-advocate.symplicity.com/public_report/ (the term “public report” indicates that a report is being made from a member of the public. Reports are not open for public view.)

As necessary, the University reserves the right to initiate a report, to serve as the complainant, and to initiate Student Conduct proceedings without a formal report by the complainant of misconduct.
The Office of Student Conduct receives information from the University Police, Borough Police and State Police. Upon receipt of the report, the Office of Student Conduct may begin their information gathering process to determine if a student is in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Reports involving allegations of sexual misconduct are investigated under the direction of the Title IX Coordinator (see Sexual/Gender Based Misconduct Procedures Appendix G).

Members of the University community are urged to report an incident immediately after it occurs. There is no specific statute of limitation on reporting a violation, but university response to reports received after a significant period of time has elapsed may be limited given the availability of witnesses, evidence or involved parties.

Case Processing & Procedures

1. Upon receiving a conduct referral, university personnel will notify the respondent by SRU email that they have allegedly violated the University Code of Conduct and invite the student in for a meeting. Notice of alleged violations against an organization will be sent to the organization’s president or their designee and advisor as listed on university registration documents. It is the responsibility of each organization to register with the University each year and to keep officer and advisor records current.

2. At the meeting, university personnel will review the information that has been gathered with the respondent and complainant.
   a. If the respondent accepts responsibility for the violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct and agrees to the sanction (consequence) assigned, an administrative waiver is completed and the case is resolved. Once such a waiver of a hearing is signed by the respondent, it may not be rescinded nor may a hearing or appeal be requested.
   b. If the respondent does not take responsibility for the violation, but there is sufficient evidence that the conduct violation occurred, the case is moved forward to a hearing.
   c. After gathering information, if it is determined that disciplinary action is not warranted, the respondent will be notified (in writing via SRU email address) that all alleged violations have been withdrawn.
   d. If the alleged offenses are severe in nature and could result in separation from the University, they will be reviewed at the initial meeting, but resolution will be determined by a hearing board at a future date. (Hearing Procedures Identified below).
   e. Failure to appear at a requested meeting will result in University personnel determining a resolution for the case, including rendering a decision and applying sanctions.
3. Automatic sanctions may be assigned by the University when sufficient evidence is presented, for any reports not involving suspension or expulsion from the University. For any incident involving suspension or expulsion from the university, a hearing opportunity will be provided for the respondent.

4. Respondents who have not signed a waiver will be afforded a five business day appeal opportunity. Appeals should be submitted in writing to the Appeal Office specified in the sanction letter.

Cases Moved to Hearing

If the alleged violation(s) could result in suspension or expulsion from the University, or if the respondent disagrees with the violation(s) or the sanction(s) (consequences), a hearing board composed of a chairperson, one student, and one faculty/staff member will determine if the respondent is found responsible. If a student hearing board member is not available, the director of the Office of Student Conduct or their designee may substitute a faculty/staff member on the hearing board. The hearing board also determines the sanction(s).

The Hearing Process includes the following:

1. The Director of Student Conduct or their designee will:
   a. Notify the respondent of the alleged violations filed
   b. Share who filed the alleged violations
   c. Identify time, date, and place of the alleged violation
   d. Provide sufficient details of the alleged violations to enable the student to respond
   e. Notify the respondent of the possible sanctions (consequences) which will be applied if they are found in violation
   f. Provide the time, date, and location of the hearing
   g. Administer a No Contact Order /No Trespass Order in cases where a respondent is a threat to the community. Respondents issued a No Trespass Order will need to contact University Police for a police escort to the hearing

2. Prior to the hearing date, the respondent and the complainant will be permitted to review information obtained during the information gathering process. To review information, the respondent and complainant must contact the Director of Student Conduct or their designee. Information will be reviewed in the Office of Student Conduct upon request.

3. Prior to the day of the hearing, the respondent and complainant may provide a list of witnesses to the Director of Student Conduct, or their designee.

4. The respondent or complainant, or Director of Student Conduct or their designee may request postponement of a scheduled hearing in writing prior to the start of the hearing. If a respondent or complainant is requesting postponement, this request must be written and must include the reason(s) that a postponement is being requested. Requests should be emailed to the Director of Student Conduct or designee. These requests will be decided on a case-by-case basis and only granted in the most mitigating circumstances.

5. Hearings are closed to the University community. Those permitted to be present are:
   a. the respondent and their advisor
b. the complainant and their advisor,
c. the members of the Hearing Board
d. the Director of Student Conduct or their designee
e. officials acting within their capacity in the Office of Student Conduct;
f. witnesses as called to present information: witnesses may only be present during the time that they are presenting information.
g. Upon request from the complainant or respondent, University Police may be present the day of the hearing to ensure safety.

6. Once the hearing has begun, the hearing board reviews information presented by the Director of Student Conduct or designee, the respondent, the complainant, and any witnesses and determines, based on a preponderance of evidence, whether the student violated the Student Code of Conduct.

7. Disruptive individuals may be asked by the hearing chairperson to leave the hearing. Advisors to the respondent and the complainant do not have a speaking role in the proceedings, students must speak for themselves.

8. Reasonable accommodations will be made, as requested for all participants based on need and safety.

9. The hearing board deliberates, and decides based on preponderance of the evidence if the violations occurred. The decision is based on a majority vote in hearing board deliberation.

10. The respondent is notified of the hearing decision in writing within five (5) business days of the receipt of the statement of findings (provided by the hearing chairperson). The complainant in cases of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking will be notified of the hearing decision in writing. This information will be delivered via the respondent’s and complainant’s Slippery Rock University email. In cases involving a non-SRU complainant, since the complainant will not have an SRU email, the complainant will be notified using the communication requested by the complainant.

11. The respondent (or complainant in cases of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking) may appeal the hearing decision within five business days by submitting a written appeal to the Director of Student Conduct. An appeal does not provide for a second hearing of the case, but addresses one or more issues as outlined below under Grounds for Appeal.

Appeal Grounds

Upon the specific request of the respondent, or upon the specific request of the complainant in cases of sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, as indicated in the appeal document, the Appeal Authority shall review the decision of the Hearing Board or Administrative Hearing Officer to determine:

1. whether the hearing process was conducted in accordance with prescribed procedures;
2. whether there is new evidence or relevant information, not available at the time of the original hearing, which may alter the Hearing Authority’s findings;
3. whether the University regulations alleged to have been violated were properly interpreted or applied by the Hearing Authority;
4. whether the sanction (consequence) imposed was proportionate to the gravity of the misconduct.
In cases not involving suspension or expulsion from the University, the written appeal is reviewed by the Associate Provost for Student Success, or their designee. The decision of the Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee is final.

In cases involving separation including suspension and expulsion from the university, an appeal board, composed of a chairperson, one student, and one faculty/staff member determine whether grounds for an appeal exist. If a student is not available to serve on the appeal board, the director of the Office of Student Conduct may appoint a staff or faculty member to serve as the third appeal board member. If the appeal board determines that the criteria for appeal have been met, their decision shall be forwarded to the Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee for review. The Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee will review the decision and may affirm the Hearing Board decision, reduce the sanction determined by the Hearing Board, dismiss some or all of the alleged violations, remand the case to the Hearing Board to consider new evidence, or remand the case for a new hearing.

Note: If the respondent or complainant fails to appear at a hearing, the hearing will proceed and sanctions (consequences) will be determined.

Note: A record will be made of the proceedings. The respondent (or complainant in cases of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking) may request to hear the electronic copy of the hearing in coordination with the director of the Office of Student Conduct during regular business hours.

Sanctions (Consequences)

Each incident report is processed and decided based upon the unique circumstances of that particular referral. Although there will be usual and customary sanctions (consequences) administered for similar violations of university regulations, there may be aggravating or mitigating circumstances that could alter the response. Sanctions (consequences) may be applied singularly or in combination. Sanctions (consequences) may be applied to individual respondents and/or responding organizations. When possible, the university administers educational sanctions that will contribute to student success. Some examples of educational sanctions include the Alcohol and Other Drug Program (an educational program run through the Counseling Center), educational reflections, and educational conversations about decision making. In addition, the Office of Student Conduct refers students to on and off campus resources as a part of the educational conduct process, to assist the student in making connections and addressing the behaviors that are in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Sanctions (consequences) are progressive in nature throughout the course of the student’s entire academic career at Slippery Rock University (this includes online semesters, continuation from undergraduate to graduate or doctoral programs).

The University may impose a wide range of sanctions (consequences) for violation of this Student Code of Conduct, including, but not limited to:
Educational Sanction - Attendance at educational or counseling programs, researching and writing a paper, completion of special projects, community service or participation in other relevant activities may be assigned in lieu of, or in addition to, other sanctions (consequences). There may be a fee for some of these activities (it will be the student’s responsibility to cover fees). The student is responsible for completing and obtaining documentation regarding the completion of any educational sanction.

MyStudentBody – a series of online tutorials designed to educate students on alcohol/drug use/abuse and sexual misconduct.

Case Management – A directive to meet with a student success case manager to co-construct a behavior plan for success.

Restitution – A written directive to replace, repair, or make specific compensation for property of the University or another person which was damaged, destroyed, or misused. Failure to make restitution by a designated date may result in a hold on a student’s registration and/or additional disciplinary action.

No Contact Order — A directive to cease and desist from any intentional contact, direct or indirect, with one or more designated persons or group(s) through any means, including personal contact, email, telephone, texting, or through third parties. Should the student fail to cease contact, they will be subject to additional action, up to and including suspension and/or arrest. An Interim No Contact Order can be put in place at the discretion of the director of the Office of Student Conduct or designee.

No Trespass Order (to campus) — an exclusion from campus for a specified period of time. During the period the student is excluded from a specified facility or area of the University, and/or the entire campus, they may not enter or participate in any function within the confines of the area or facility of the University. They will not be permitted to enter or use the University property for visitation, meals, employment, or any other purpose. This status also includes exclusion from the property’s lobbies, patios, and adjacent university property. Should the student reappear in any of the areas heretofore mentioned, they will be subject to arrest. Interim Campus No Trespass can be put in place at the discretion of the director of the Office of Student Conduct or their designee; a hearing will be scheduled to address the alleged violations.

Censure – a written statement from the Office of Student Conduct expressing disapproval of the conduct and a warning indicating future violations could result in more severe consequences.

Disciplinary Probation - is an encumbrance on the student’s/organization’s good standing at the University. Any subsequent violation or additional referrals of violation of University regulations during the probationary period may result in separation from the University. A term of probation not less than one semester in length may be specified. If no additional violations or referrals of additional violations of University regulations occur, the student/organization is returned to good standing at the conclusion of the probationary period.
Permanent Disciplinary Probation – A term of probation as defined lasting until the student graduates from the University. Any additional incident of violation during the probationary period is likely to result in separation from the University. The student will remain on probation until the disciplinary record is purged in accordance with the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct.

Loss of Privilege - The withdrawal of a privilege, use of a service, or participation in an activity for a specific period of time. This includes, but is not limited to, restriction of participation in Intercollegiate, Club, or Intramural Athletics, student organizations, Student Government, food services, other university services, programs, and academic trips or activities. Loss of privilege may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction and relates to the violations determined.

Disciplinary Hold – A restriction placed on a respondent’s account which would prevent a student from registering for classes, issuance of a housing contract and access to athletic facilities. A disciplinary hold may also place a restriction on obtaining transcripts depending on the circumstances of the alleged violation.

Deferred Suspension - Establishes a fixed period of time, not less than two semesters in which the respondent is not in good standing with the University. While permitted to remain enrolled or recognized the respondent is not permitted to represent the University nor participate in any extracurricular activities. The specifics of the deferred suspension will vary based upon the violation and the individual student’s/organization’s circumstances. The respondent may be restricted and only participate in activities directly related to academic pursuits and only be permitted to enter buildings necessary for the completion of academic requirements. Additional conditions, restrictions and/or educational sanction may occur during the deferred suspension. Any additional violations of University regulations or failure to complete the conditions or educational sanctions will result in the immediate suspension of the respondent for the duration of the deferred suspension or longer. Additional sanctions may be applied as a result of the new violations. Respondents on deferred suspension who are academically suspended from the University are not eligible for early readmission. Appeals of a deferred suspension will be reviewed administratively by the Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee.

Disciplinary Suspension - Establishes a fixed period of time, not less than one semester (not including summer or winter terms), during which the student/organization may not participate in academic or other activities of the University. After the established time period has elapsed, and the respondent has completed all other sanctions (consequences), the respondent may re-enroll. Student organizations who wish to seek re-recognition by the university must contact the Center for Service, Involvement and Leadership. Because the fixed term will vary according to the individual case and readmission may be contingent upon individually assigned conditions, the respondent will be prohibited from entering onto the campus (the respondent is issued a No Trespass for the entirety of the suspension period), and the transcript will note the disciplinary suspension for the duration of the suspension.

Expulsion - Establishes a permanent ban against the respondent and prohibits any further involvement by the respondent in academic or other activities of the University. The respondent is prohibited from entering onto the campus with a No Trespass to all university property and the notation of the expulsion will be permanently placed on the respondent’s academic transcript.

Revocation of Degree - Allegations of academic dishonesty may be filed against a respondent who has already received a diploma. The former student shall be afforded all protection and due process required by the Student Code of Conduct, as if they were still a student. Upon a finding of violation, the Hearing Board may recommend to the Provost that degree revocation proceedings be initiated in addition to the application of other sanctions.

Interim Disciplinary Suspension - If the director of Student Conduct (or designee) determines that the presence of a respondent constitutes an immediate threat of harm themselves, other students, university personnel, or university property, the director of Student Conduct (or designee), may immediately suspend that respondent. Within ten business days of the interim suspension, a hearing will be convened. Extenuating circumstances may warrant an extension, in which case the hearing will be convened at the earliest possible date. The respondent will be notified of the date, time, and location of the hearing. At the hearing, the respondent will have the opportunity to present a defense and a determination will be made as to whether the suspension should be removed or made permanent or whether any other sanction should be imposed.

Minimum Sanctions Related to Drug and Alcohol Offenses

1) Underage possession or consumption of alcohol
   a. 1st violation: Censure and an Alcohol and Other Drug Program First Referral

Residence Hall Disciplinary Action
Residence Life disciplinary action occurs when a student has been found responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct and/or the Residence Hall Agreement issued each year to all on-campus residents.

Residence Life Censure - A written statement from the Department of Residence Life condemning the behavior and warning indicating future violation(s) could result in more severe consequences.

Residence Life Probation — A conditional encumbrance on the student’s disciplinary status with Residence Life. During the probationary period, a resident is excluded from participation in extracurricular university owned housing activities, and may not hold any appointed or elected position within the university owned housing community.

Residence Life Suspension — A termination of residence for a specified period of time from university owned housing. A No Trespass order will be issued to the respondent for all university owned housing during the period of suspension. This status means they will not be permitted to enter or use university owned housing for visitation, meals, employment, or any other purpose. This status also includes exclusion from lobbies, patios, and adjacent university property. Should the respondent reappear in any of the areas heretofore mentioned they would be subject to arrest. At the conclusion of the period of suspension, the respondent will be allowed to return to university owned housing on a probationary basis for a period of one year unless otherwise specified.

Residence Life Expulsion — A termination of residence and permanent exclusion from university owned housing. If the respondent reaps for residence, they will not be allowed to return to university owned housing. A record of Residence Life Expulsion is maintained as a permanent record in the conduct file. Additionally, the student will receive a No Trespass Order from all university owned housing. This status means they will not be permitted to enter or use university owned housing for visitation, meals, employment, or for any other purpose. This status also includes exclusion from lobbies, patios, and adjacent university property. Should the respondent reappear in any of the areas heretofore mentioned, they will be subject to arrest.
Interim Residence Life Suspension — An immediate exclusion from university owned housing and all related privileges and activities which is imposed by the Director of Residence Life or their designee, pending adjudication. Interim Residence Life Suspension is imposed only to help ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community. During the period of Interim Residence Life Suspension, a No Trespass order will be issued to the student for all university owned housing, visitation, meals, employment, or for any other purpose. This status also includes exclusion from lobbies, patios, and adjacent university property. Should the student reappear in any of the areas heretofore mentioned, they will be subject to arrest.

Involuntary Change of Residence Life Room Assignment — A written directive to relocate a resident to an alternative housing accommodation within a specified period of time which is imposed by the Director of Residence Life or their designee. Involuntary Change of Residence Life Room Assignment is imposed to help ensure the safety and well-being of a member of the University community, or university property, the student’s own physical or emotional safety and well-being, or to help ensure that a building/floor has a community environment that is conducive to academic success.

Record Retention Policy
Adjudicated discipline records are maintained for a period of seven (7) years from the date of the offense. Files will be maintained permanently for all pending incidents and incidents resulting in disciplinary suspension or disciplinary expulsion.

Parental Notification Statement
Parents or legal guardians of dependent students under the age of 21 found responsible for violations of conduct standards on alcohol and/or drugs will be informed, in writing, following an infraction and finding of responsibility. At the time of a first incident, students will be strongly advised to consult parents or guardians regarding their behavior and to seek advice on any criminal or disciplinary processes which may transpire as well as any intervention strategies related to use or abuse of substances.

Parents or legal guardians of dependent students will be notified in situations where their student is placed on disciplinary probation or has been separated from the University.

Good Samaritan Protection
The Pennsylvania’s Good Samaritan Law (Act 139 of 2014) for Alcohol & Other Drug Incidents provides conditions for amnesty related to the reporting of alcohol and drug related medical emergencies. The Sexual/Gender Based Offenses Policy provides conditions for amnesty from secondary offenses (e.g. alcohol violations) related to the reporting of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking incidents.

APPENDIX B: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Purpose of SRU’s Academic Integrity Policy
The value of education is determined by the quality and character of its students and graduates. Therefore, students, student organizations, management, and faculty are expected to uphold academic integrity.

Definition of Academic Integrity
Academic integrity refers to the adherence to agreed upon moral and ethical principles when engaging in academic or scholarly pursuits. Mastery of subject matter should be demonstrated in an honorable and straightforward manner.

The Significance of Course Grades and the SRU Degree
A course grade certifies both your knowledge of that particular material and a standard of academic integrity. The SRU degree certifies to society both the educational achievement and the fulfillment of our standards, which include ethical and moral behavior.

Discipline
Inherent in the learning process is a commitment to discipline. Discipline is a specific form of training that looks to the future where one learns lessons and makes better choices. The instructor will guide the learning process by identifying unacceptable behavior and work with students to define the problem and guide them to make better choices. This process preserves the value and reputation of the degrees conferred by SRU. There are two types of discipline: pre-emptive and corrective discipline.

1. Pre-emptive Discipline
Pre-emptive discipline is a means of training which mandates that the student undertake certain appropriate actions in the course of the learning process. It is expected that students engage in the following pre-emptive behaviors:
   a. All academic work, including, but not limited to, papers, computer programs, assignments, and tests, must consist of the student's own work and not that of other students or other authorities.
   b. Students are expected to be honest in all academic work, refrain from all forms of academic dishonesty.
   c. Students are expected to function as such, including, but not limited to, attending class regularly and completing all assignments and examinations on their own unless the faculty member notes otherwise.
   d. Students are expected to learn, practice and apply standard techniques for accurately citing resource material. It is the student's, not the instructor's, responsibility to ensure that all material is cited.
   e. Students are expected to know the difference between direct quote and citation. When in doubt, the essence of the text should be conveyed in the student’s own words.
   f. Students are expected to understand basic principles of respect and compliance with intellectual property law. Particularly important are those aspects of the Copyright Law of the United States that apply to academic work as well as to the use of University computer resources.
2. Corrective Discipline
Corrective discipline could be implemented when students engage in dishonest behavior. Corrective discipline activities may include:
   a. Conferring with the instructor to identify inappropriate behaviors
   b. Developing a remediation plan and behavioral goals
   c. Developing a means of assessing the student’s accomplishment of the established goals
   d. Identifying student sanctions to be put in place if the student does not meet these behavior goals.

Dishonest Behavior
Dishonest Behavior that would merit corrective discipline is defined as any action that gives the student an unfair advantage. Academic dishonesty may take many forms. Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Buying, selling, or trading papers, projects, or other assignments.
2. Using or attempting to use any unauthorized book, notes, or assistance (for example, copying another student’s test or homework).
3. Plagiarizing and/or submitting the work of another as your own.
4. Completing class work for another person.
5. Fabricating information or citations.
6. Facilitating dishonest acts of others pertaining to academic work.
7. Possessing unauthorized examinations.
8. Submitting, without instructor permission, work previously used.
9. Tampering with the academic work of another person.
10. Ghost-taking an exam in place of a student or having any person take an exam in your place.
11. Any attempt to falsify an assigned grade on an examination, report, or program or in a grade book, document, or other record.
12. Any attempted, or actual computer program theft, illegal use of software; illegal downloading or streaming of copyrighted media, or inappropriate use of the Internet; such as, but not limited to, illegal or unauthorized transmission; or improper access to any computer system or account.
13. Any attempted, or actual, collusion willfully giving or receiving unauthorized or unacknowledged assistance on any assignment or examination (all parties are considered responsible).
14. Forging a faculty member’s or administrator’s signature on any document.
15. Copying and pasting digital media including, but not limited to, email correspondence, text, images, or other media from online sources without proper citation, the copyright owner’s permission to use the digital media; or, evidence of having performed a favorable fair use analysis.
16. Copying and pasting significant portions of digital media with or without citation.

Implications of Dishonest Behavior
1. Implications to the Student
a. The student is deprived of the totality of the learning process and lacks the knowledge and skills needed to succeed.
b. The student subsequently misrepresents his/her qualifications to employers; graduate schools etc. and is not as qualified to perform the work as represented.
c. The student invalidates the assessment tool used to evaluate the class and deprives the faculty from truly evaluating the effectiveness of the assessment instrument and/or the teaching-learning process.
d. The student is temporarily rewarded by a good grade but induces others, directly or indirectly, to engage in dishonest behavior.
e. The student will have conditioned himself/herself to take shortcuts when pressured. This behavior will then be repeated when he/she is in the professional world.
f. The student receives an unfair advantage, relative to other students who conduct themselves in an ethical manner.
g. The student could be liable for civil or criminal penalties as a result of violating federal intellectual property laws.

2. Implications to the University
a. Interns, graduates, etc. will not be qualified to function in their respective professions. Consequently, the SRU degree will be devalued, and SRU will be less attractive as a school for employers recruiting interns or prospective employees.
b. The perception of the public will be that SRU engages in grade inflation.
c. Alumni/government funding may decrease.
d. SRU will lose qualified students for seats occupied by unqualified students who engaged in dishonest behavior.
e. SRU’s ability to recruit top performing students will be negatively impacted as its reputation becomes tarnished.
f. The University, its faculty and staff could be at risk of penalties as a result of the student’s violation of federal intellectual property laws.

3. Implications to Prospective Employers, including those who provide Internships
a. The student will have engaged in resume/transcript fraud; thus, employers will not be hiring a well-educated employee but instead will be gaining one who cannot perform at the level they represent.
b. Employers who have bad experiences with SRU graduates will not recruit from the University or provide internship opportunities.
c. Employers will have wasted resources on graduates who are not qualified to do the job.
d. Students who have legitimately attained a moderate to high GPA may be overlooked.

Rights and Responsibilities

1. Course Instructor
a. The instructor has the right to demand academic integrity and authentic authorship in the face-to-face or online classroom.
b. The instructor has the responsibility to ensure that SRU’s academic integrity standards are followed.
c. The instructor is responsible for communicating to students SRU’s Academic Integrity Policy and the minimum penalties for dishonesty in the course syllabus.
d. The instructor is expected to take steps to minimize the opportunity for students to engage in academic dishonesty.

e. The instructor clearly communicates course expectations.

f. The instructor who alleges academic dishonesty is responsible for filing out a conduct referral for the Office of Student Conduct.

g. The instructor will gather evidence and participate in the resolution of cases that he/she initiates by following set procedures.

h. The instructor serves as a role model and mentor by instilling, through example, high ethical conduct in his/her own academic endeavors and in the classroom and online learning environment.

j. The instructor, in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, will treat as strictly confidential any information relating to an alleged violation of the University’s Academic Integrity Policy or the outcome of a conduct hearing.

2. University

   a. SRU has a right to discipline students who deviate from academic standards. The University is responsible for upholding the minimum standards of academic integrity and achievement on which degrees are based and for certifying that students have attained sufficient academic credit and exhibited acceptable standards of conduct to entitle them to a degree.

   b. SRU has a right and is responsible for maintaining and encouraging high standards of academic integrity by establishing policies and procedures for academic integrity and authentic authorship.

   c. The University is responsible for monitoring all violations of this policy in order to ensure the integrity and reputation of a degree from SRU.

   d. The University is responsible for communicating this policy to students in any form deemed appropriate.

3. Student

   a. A student accused of academic dishonesty has the right to due process, which means he/she will be informed of his/her alleged behavior and he/she will have an opportunity to have his/her case heard in a fair and impartial manner.

   b. The student must read and understand SRU’s policy on Academic Integrity since ignorance of this policy is not an acceptable defense by a student if a charge of academic dishonesty is made by the instructor against the student.

   c. The student must comply with these standards of integrity as part of the academic community.

   d. A student who fails to meet the procedural deadlines contained in the policy will forfeit his/her rights to a formal hearing for appealing a sanction.

   e. The student should actively encourage other students to comply with these standards.

   f. The student is encouraged to report any violations of this policy by other students to SRU faculty, administration or management. Students are encouraged to testify at subsequent formal hearings about such matters.

   g. A student has the right to be notified in writing within five (5) business days of the report of the alleged violation.
h. A student has the right to meet with the faculty member to present his/her own version of the facts.
i. A student has the right to accept the faculty member's allegations as true and accept the faculty member's imposed sanction as well as SRU’s sanctions.
j. A student always maintains the right to have the allegations heard before the Office of Student Conduct.

How Can Academic Integrity be encouraged?

1. Faculty
   a. Spell out expectations for authentic authorship in the course syllabus and attach SRU’s Academic Integrity Policy.
   b. Review SRU’s academic integrity policy when reviewing the syllabus.
   c. Secure all assessment instruments for which a grade will be assigned.
   d. Create an environment that encourages the prevention of academic dishonesty.
   e. State within the syllabi that if students do not understand whether something is or is not a breach of academic dishonesty, they must consult with the instructor prior to undertaking the activity.

2. The Student’s Role in Academic Integrity
   a. Taking responsibility for one’s own actions both positive and negative.
   b. Understanding the consequences of both positive and negative behaviors to all stakeholders: oneself, the institution, the faculty and management, the assessment process, and fellow students.
   c. Engaging in actions to change behavior that is negative.
   d. Changing one’s thinking at a deep level leading to positive changes in one’s actions.
   e. Becoming a positive role model for others by one's actions.

APPENDIX C: ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Slippery Rock University Information & Administrative Technology Services
Information Technology (IT) Acceptable Use Policy

1. Purpose: This policy addresses the use of information technology resources (IT resources) at Slippery Rock University (“the university”). IT resources are intended to support the university’s instructional, research, and administrative operations.

2. Scope: This policy applies to all users of IT resources owned or operated by Slippery Rock University. Users include students, faculty, staff, contractors, and guest users of computer network resources, equipment or connecting resources.

3. Objective: The objective of this policy is to create a framework to ensure that IT resources are used in an appropriate fashion, and support the university’s mission and institutional goals.

4. Policy: Use of the university’s IT resources is a privilege and signifies agreement to comply with this policy. Users are expected to act responsibly, and follow the university’s policies and any applicable laws related to the use of IT resources. This policy provides regulations to assure IT resources are allocated effectively.

While the university recognizes the role of privacy in an institution of higher learning, and will endeavor to honor that ideal, there should be no expectation of privacy of information stored on or sent through university-owned IT resources, except as required by law. For example, the university may be required to provide information stored in IT resources to someone other than the user as a result of court order, investigatory process, or in response to a request authorized under Pennsylvania’s Right-to-Know statute (65 P.S. §67.101 et seq.). Information stored by the University may also be viewed by technical staff working to resolve technical issues.

5. Definitions: Information Technology (IT) resources include, but are not limited to all university owned or operated:
   a. hardware,
   b. software,
   c. computing equipment,
   d. systems,
   e. networks,
   f. programs,
   g. personal data assistants,
   h. cellular phones,
   i. fax,
   j. telephone,
   k. storage devices,
   l. cable television,
   m. input/output, connecting devices via either a physical or wireless connection regardless of the ownership of the device connected to the network,
n. and any electronic device issued by the university.

IT resources also include all electronic media, voice, video conferencing and video networks, electronic mail, and related mediums such as blogs, wikis, websites, and electronic records stored on University-owned servers and systems.

6. Responsibilities of Users of IT Resources:
   a. Respect the intellectual property of authors, contributors, and publishers in all media. Downloading and or sharing copyrighted material including, but not limited to songs and movies without the copyright holder’s consent is illegal.
   b. Protect user identification, password information, and the system from unauthorized use.
   c. Adhere to the terms of software licenses and other contracts. Persons loading software on any university computer must adhere to all licensing requirements for the software. Except where allowed by university site licenses, the copying of university-licensed software for personal use is a violation of this policy.

Applicable laws include, but are not limited to, those regulating copyright infringement, copyright fair use, libel, slander, and harassment.
   e. Become acquainted with laws, licensing, contracts, and university policies and regulations applicable to the appropriate use of IT resources. Users are expected to use good judgment and exercise civility at all times when utilizing IT resources, and respect the large, diverse community utilizing these resources in a shared manner.
   f. Understand the appropriate use of assigned IT resources, including the computer network address or port, software and hardware.
   g. Comply with the university’s Email Branding and Use Policy as an official means of communication policy. Electronic mail should never be considered an appropriate tool for confidential communication. Messages can be forwarded or printed, and some users permit others to review their e-mail accounts. Message content can be revealed as part of legal proceedings. Finally, messages are sometimes not successfully delivered due to a technical issue requiring authorized IT personnel to review message content as part of the troubleshooting process.

7. Prohibited Uses of IT Resources
   a. Providing false or misleading information to gain access to a University computing account or other IT resources. For example, you may not use a computer or network ID that was not assigned to you, unless multiple access has been authorized for the ID.

c. Attempting to access restricted portions of the network, an operating system, remote computers security software or other administrative applications without authorization by the system owner or administrator.

d. Deliberately performing an act, which will seriously impact the operation of computers, terminals, peripherals, or networks. This includes, but is not limited to, tampering with components of a local area network (LAN) or the high-speed backbone network, otherwise blocking communication lines, or interfering with the operational readiness of a computer.

e. Using IT resources to transmit abusive, threatening, or harassing material or other communications prohibited by law.

f. Violating terms of all software licensing agreements and copyright laws. In particular, you must not make copies of copyrighted software, unless the University has a site license specifically allowing the copying of that software. Furthermore, you must not copy site-licensed software for distribution to persons other than Slippery Rock University faculty, staff, and students, nor may you copy site-licensed software for use at locations not covered under the terms of the license agreement.

g. Using IT resources in such a way that overburdens or degrades the performance of IT resources to the exclusion of other users. This includes activities which unfairly deprive other users of access to IT resources or which impose a burden on the university, such as sending mass mailings or chain letters, creating unnecessary multiple jobs or processes, obtaining unnecessary output, printing or creating unnecessary network traffic, printing multiple copies of large documents. Users must be considerate when utilizing IT resources. The University reserves the right to set limits on a user through quotas, time limits, and/or other mechanisms.

h. Intentionally or knowingly installing, executing, or providing to another, a program or file, on any of the IT resources that could result in the damage to any file, system, or network. This includes, but is not limited to computer viruses, trojan horses, worms, spyware or other malicious programs or files. Nor is it permissible to place on any University-owned computer system that

i. infringes upon the rights of another person,

APPENDIX D: HAZING POLICY

PHILOSOPHY
Slippery Rock University believes in promoting healthy, safe, and balanced lifestyles. Student organizations and athletic teams can play a vital role in this process, and can provide transformative opportunities for friendship, leadership, and personal growth and discovery. Hazing of any kind is antithetical to these goals; therefore, Slippery Rock University prohibits hazing activities, whether by an individual or an organization.

POLICY
An organization and its student members are also engaged in hazing if pledge, initiation, or continuing membership activities cause the willful destruction or removal of public or private property.

RATIONALE
Act 175 of 1986 (Anti-Hazing Law) of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prohibits students and student organizations from hazing applicants for membership and from hazing persons who are already members to maintain their memberships in organizations.

Act 175 provides that no student can consent to being hazed. Any activity falling within the definition of hazing activities is considered to be a forced activity, subjecting the organization and its members to the full range of penalties.

“Hazing.” Any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a person or which willfully destroys or removes public or private property for the purpose of initiation or admission into or affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in, any organization. The term shall include, but not be limited to, any brutality of a physical nature, such as whipping, beating, branding, forced calisthenics, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of any food, liquor, drug or other substance, or any other forced physical activity which could adversely affect the physical health and safety of the individual, and shall include any activity which would subject the individual to extreme mental stress, such as sleep deprivation, forced exclusion from social contact, forced conduct which could result in extreme embarrassment, or any other forced activity which could adversely affect the mental health or dignity of the individual, or any willful destruction or removal of public or private property. For purposes of this definition, any activity as described in this definition upon which the initiation or admission into or affiliation with or continued membership in an organization is directly or indirectly conditioned shall be presumed to be “forced” activity, the willingness of an individual to participate in such activity notwithstanding.

Citation: PA ST 24 P.S. § 5352

Any University staff member, faculty, or student observing a violation of this policy should inform University Police and/or the Office of Student Conduct.
SANCTIONS (CONSEQUENCES)
Any organization found to have engaged in hazing may have its official recognition revoked. Any student who participates in hazing may be fined, suspended, or disciplined. Hazing is also a criminal penalty. Any student who participates in hazing may be arrested and prosecuted. Conviction may result in jail term of one year in addition to any other applicable penalty under the Pennsylvania Crimes Code.

I. Introduction

Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct, as defined by these procedures, comprises a broad range of behavior that will not be tolerated in the university community. For the purposes of this policy, Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct includes sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse (or attempts to commit the same) and/or sexual exploitation, as more fully defined below. Slippery Rock University is committed to fostering a community that promotes prompt reporting of all types of sexual misconduct, and timely and fair resolution of sexual misconduct complaints. Creating a safe environment is the responsibility of all members of the University community, guests, and visitors. These procedures have been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. The intention of these procedures is to define community expectations, encourage individuals to report violations, and to establish a mechanism for responding to violations.

A. Policy Violations

Violations of this policy can impair or limit the educational and occupational opportunities of any person at Slippery Rock University and have no place in this community. These procedures apply to all Slippery Rock University students, both undergraduate and graduate. The Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania Sexual Harassment Policy for employees (faculty, staff, and student employees) can be found at: https://www.sru.edu/Documents/offices/diversity/Sexual-Harassment-and-Assault-Policy.docx

B. Criminal Offenses

These procedures also define behavior and identify resources for persons who have experienced a sexual offense. Sexual offenses are prohibited under Commonwealth of Pennsylvania statutes and federal laws and may be prosecuted in the criminal justice system. Legal definitions may vary from definitions used by the Slippery Rock University community as outlined in these procedures. Pursuing a campus resolution through this policy does not preclude one from pursuing legal action now or in the future, and vice versa. (These procedures do not address civil law remedies that also may be available – through a privately-filed lawsuit against a perpetrator of a sexual offense – to those who have been the victim of a sexual offense.)

C. Context: Title IX

Anyone can experience or be a perpetrator of sexual misconduct regardless of gender or sexual orientation. Perpetrators can be anyone: a stranger, current or former intimate partner, a long-time acquaintance, or a new acquaintance. When the victim or perpetrator is a student, the violation falls under the rules and regulations of Title IX—which is a provision of federal law. Title IX [20 U.S.C. § 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106 (1972)] mandates that “No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.” One of the principal purposes of this policy is to implement and enforce the requirements of Title IX. Thus, you will see it referenced throughout.

II. Information and Assistance

The Title IX Coordinator’s role is to oversee University compliance with Title IX regulations.

The Title IX Coordinator will:

1. Serve as a resource for students wishing to report any acts of sexual misconduct or gender-based discrimination, i.e. violations of Title IX.

2. Provide oversight for all Title IX complaints and identify patterns, issues or problems regarding those same complaints.

3. Review and support the informational initiatives enabling students, staff and faculty to fully understand sexual violence and sexual harassment as forms of sexual discrimination and further educate the community about University policy and procedures.

III. Policy
It is the policy of Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits discrimination (including sexual harassment and sexual violence) based on sex in the University’s educational programs and activities. Title IX also prohibits retaliation for asserting claims of sex discrimination. Sexual misconduct as defined in this policy is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX.

Sexual Misconduct Offenses

1. Sexual Harassment
   Unwelcome, gender-based verbal or physical conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that it has the effect of unreasonably interfering with, limiting or denying someone the ability to participate in or benefit from the University’s educational program. The unwelcome behavior may be based on power differentials (quid pro quo), the creation of a hostile environment or retaliation. Examples include: an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship; to repeatedly subject a person to egregious or unwanted sexual attention; to punish a refusal to comply with sexual requests or advances; to condition a benefit on submitting to sexual advances; sexual violence; intimate partner violence or stalking; gender-based bullying.

4. Sexual Exploitation Occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

   a. Invasion of sexual privacy.
   b. Prostituting another person.
   c. Non-consensual video, photography or audio-taping of sexual activity.

Retaliation is a separate charge, and may be cause for discipline apart from the outcome of the initial complaint. That is, retaliation can be found to have occurred even if there is no finding of a policy violation under the original complaint.

   c. Review and support the informational initiatives enabling students, staff and faculty to fully understand sexual violence and sexual harassment as forms of sexual discrimination and further educate the community about University policies and procedures.

V. Confidentiality and Reporting
When consulting campus resources all parties should be aware of confidentiality and mandatory reporting order to make informed choices.

On campus, some resources can offer confidentiality, sharing options and advice without any obligation to tell anyone unless the complainant wants them to. This is limited to the counselors in the Counseling Center who have client/counselor privilege. Staff members of the Student Health Services and the Director of the Women’s Center and the Director of the Pride Center also provide confidential resources but with a limited reporting requirement. This is discussed in greater detail, in section V.A. below.

Other resources on campus (listed below) are expressly there for complainants to report crimes and policy violations, and they will take action when a violation of this policy is reported to them. Matters of confidentiality are described in greater detail below.

1. To Report Confidentially
If one desires that details of the incident be kept confidential, he or she should speak with on-campus mental health counselors, campus health service providers, director of the Women’s Center, director of the Pride Center, or off-campus rape crisis resources who can maintain confidentiality. Campus counselors are available to help free of charge and can be seen on an emergency basis. Confidential reports may also be made to Student Health Services and the director of the Women’s Center and the director of the Pride Center. Although a legally recognized privilege may not attach to these roles, the University respects the victim’s expectations of privacy to the extent permissible by law while still ensuring compliance with other reporting obligations. Individuals authorized to have confidentiality are required to report the nature, date, time, and general location of an allegation of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. Unless the complainant consents to the release of his/her name, the individuals authorized with confidentiality will not release the complainant’s personally identifiable information to the Title IX Coordinator. Confidentiality does not apply when the complainant is a minor (under the age of 18).

2. Non-Confidential Reporting Options Complainants are encouraged to speak to officials of the University to make formal reports of incidents (Title IX Investigators, deans, vice presidents or other administrators with supervisory responsibilities, campus police, human resources, etc.). The University considers these people to be “responsible employees.” Notice to them is official notice to the University. Therefore, when these individuals receive a complaint, they are required to take action and cannot keep the matter confidential in the same manner as the individuals listed in section V.A.

Complainants have the right and can expect to have incidents of sexual misconduct investigated by the University when reported, and to have those incidents addressed through administrative procedures. When a complaint is reported, only people who need to know will be told, and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, witnesses and the respondent.

3. Third-Party Reports
   In cases where the sexual or gender based misconduct is reported to the Title IX Coordinator by a third party, that is someone other than the alleged victim, (e.g., faculty member, Residence Life staff member, adviser, dean, student, etc.) an information gathering investigation will be conducted concerning the allegations. Initially, all efforts will be made to meet with the alleged victim to discuss options and resources available through the University and community. At a minimum, all alleged victims will receive a list of university and community resources.

4. Federal Statistical Reporting Obligations (Clery Act)
   Certain campus officials have a duty to report sexual misconduct for federal statistical reporting purposes (Clery Act). All personally identifiable information is kept confidential, but statistical information must be passed along to campus law enforcement regarding the type of incident and its general location (on- or off-campus, in the surrounding area, but no addresses are given) for publication in the annual Campus Security Report. This report helps to provide the community with a clear picture of the extent and nature of campus crime, to ensure greater community safety. Individuals’ names or other identifying information are never included in the Security Report.

   Mandated federal reporters include: student conduct, student affairs, campus law enforcement, local police, coaches, athletic directors, residence life staff, student activities staff, human resources staff, advisers to student organizations and any other official with significant responsibility for student and campus activities. The information to be shared includes the date, the location of the incident (using Clery location categories) and the Clery crime category. This reporting protects the identity of the complainant and may be done anonymously.

5. Federal Timely Warning Reporting Obligations
   Complainants of sexual misconduct also should be aware that University administrators must issue immediate timely warnings for incidents reported to them that are confirmed to pose a substantial threat of bodily harm or danger to members of the campus community. The University will make every effort to ensure that a complainant’s name and other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the danger. The reporters for timely warning purposes are the same as detailed at the end of the paragraph above (“Federal Statistical Reporting Obligations”). Campus security information is provided to members of the Slippery Rock University community through the webpage. When it has been determined that a crime creates a threat of continuing danger to the campus community, a crime alert will be posted throughout the campus, and an e-mail will be sent to the campus community. University Public Relations will be responsible for issuing the timely warnings.

VI. Retaliation Prohibited
   Every person who alleges a violation of the Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Procedures, or who reports such a violation, or who assists Slippery Rock University in the investigation of a complaint under this policy is protected against retaliatory actions. Retaliation against any such person may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination from employment or expulsion from Slippery Rock University.

Retaliation against any person who is the complainant of sexual misconduct is prohibited as well. No retaliatory action is to be taken against any person seeking advice, filing a complaint or serving as a witness or otherwise cooperating in an investigation of harassment or discrimination.

VII. Procedure(s)

1. Complaints

There are two types of complaint-resolution mechanisms: a formal complaint process that involves investigation and hearing procedures, and an informal process (available for certain kinds of complaints) that involves less formal types of procedures. Each is described below.

a. Mediation Options (Informal Complaints)

Alternative resolution options—such as mediation, and other processes—may be available in certain situations. These options can be requested by any party who is directly involved or suggested by a hearing officer. These options may be used to avoid escalation of minor conflicts or in place of the formal conduct process in certain situations with the agreement of all involved parties and the Title IX Coordinator’s approval. If the use of informal measures does not result in an agreement, the case will be referred back to the formal process for adjudication.

Be advised that non-consensual sexual intercourse complaints cannot be mediated or addressed through a mediation process.

b. Formal Complaints

Any member of the University community, guest, visitor or other interested party may make a report of an alleged violation of the University’s Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Policy.

Complaints will be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator.

While the University is firmly committed to protecting all students from harassment and discrimination in educational programs and activities, failure to file a timely complaint may adversely affect the ability of the University to investigate a complaint. The university is committed to providing all available resources regardless of when a complaint is filed.

The complaint process is outlined below:

i. The individual who receives the complaint will obtain information from the complainant about the nature of the conduct that is being alleged, and will commence an investigation.

ii. The respondent is provided written notification of the request for a formal investigation or otherwise given a written statement of the allegations and a copy of the Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Procedures (Title IX).

iii. The investigation generally includes interviews with the parties, if available, interviews with other witnesses as needed, and a review of relevant documents... as appropriate. Disclosure of facts to parties and witnesses is limited to what is reasonably necessary to conduct a fair and thorough investigation. Participants in an investigation are advised that maintaining confidentiality is essential to protect the integrity of the investigation.

iv. Upon request, the complainant(s) and respondent(s) may each have a representative present when he or she is required by applicable University policy or collective bargaining agreement to be interviewed.

v. At any time during the investigation, the investigator(s) may recommend to Slippery Rock University administrators that interim protections or remedies be provided to the complainant, respondent, or witnesses. Violations of these protections may be considered a separate violation of the Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Policy (Title IX).

vi. The investigation shall be completed as promptly as possible and, in most cases, within sixty (60) working days of the date the formal complaint was filed.

vii. Generally, for investigations involving an employee as a respondent, an investigation results in a written report that includes a statement of the allegations and issues, the positions of the parties, a summary of the evidence and a finding of whether the actions violated the university’s Sexual Harassment & Sexual Assault Policy. For investigations involving a student as a respondent, evidence is presented to a three person hearing board. The board determines if the student is in violation and a sanction(s) if found in violation. The hearing board process is outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. This report may also be used as evidence in other related procedures, such as subsequent complaints, grievances and/or disciplinary actions.

viii. The complainant will be informed if there were findings made that the policy was or was not violated and of actions taken to resolve the complaint, if any, that are directly related to the complainant, such as an order that the respondent not contact the complainant.

ix. The appropriate SRU administrator shall provide written notification to the Title IX Coordinator of what action, if any, has been taken, including the results of any appeals.

2. Formal Resolution Procedures for Complaints Against Faculty and Non-Faculty Employees

Title IX complaints filed by students against employees of Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania will follow the procedures outlined in the Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania’s Sexual Harassment and Sexual Abuse Policy. A copy of this policy can be found online at https://www.sru.edu/Documents/offices/diversity/Sexual-Harassment-and-Assault-Policy.docx or a hard copy can be obtained from the Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity/Title IX Coordinator, 305 Old Main.

3. Formal Resolution Procedures for Complaints Against Students

a. Complaints Against Students

i. Complaints will be assigned to the Title IX Coordinator. In cases where the complainant chooses to utilize the student conduct process or the university determines that there is a threat to others in the community, the Title IX Coordinator will assign Title IX Investigators to investigate the allegation(s) and prepare an investigation report. The investigation report will be reviewed by the Title IX Coordinator and forwarded to the Director of Student Conduct. The Director of Student Conduct will then schedule a preliminary meeting with the complainant and the respondent to review the complaint and discuss the conduct process.

ii. If a respondent fails to attend a preliminary meeting after reasonable attempts by the University to provide notification, the University reserves the right to adjudicate the complaint based on the information available through an administrative hearing. The respondent will be notified of the hearing details and given an opportunity to participate in a hearing to address the alleged violations.

iii. If a respondent fails to appear for a scheduled hearing without providing notice, the hearing officer or conduct board may proceed in his/her absence. Only the information available then will be considered in determining responsibility and sanctions.

iv. Respondents and complainants shall be provided written notification of the time, place and date of a hearing board hearing at least five (5) working days in advance, following a preliminary meeting. The notice shall include the alleged violations to be adjudicated and other pertinent information about the hearing. The respondent or complainant can request a postponement of the hearing, and such a request will be reviewed and decided on by the Director of the Office of Student Conduct.

v. Complainants and respondents have the right to have an adviser of their choice present at an administrative or board hearing. An adviser may provide support and advice, but may not actively participate in a hearing. Attorneys may act as advisers, but may not actively participate in the hearing by, for example, asking questions, arguing their client’s case, submitting written legal arguments on their client’s behalf, or attempting to introduce legal matters.

vi. Hearings, both administrative and hearing board, will be closed to the public. All information presented during conduct proceedings is confidential and will only be released if required by law or subject to the agreement of the complainant and respondent, except for final results of non-consensual sexual intercourse or other violent acts, which will be released to the complainant.

vii. Witnesses may only be present during the time that they are presenting information.

viii. Oral and/or written statements may be considered at the discretion of the chair or hearing officer and will be weighed as deemed appropriate by the hearing authority. Complainants and respondents are responsible for ensuring witnesses or documents are available at the time of the hearing.

ix. Respondents will be afforded an opportunity to hear and respond to all information presented against them.

x. Board members with a conflict of interest or bias shall disclose such matters during the hearing if they intend to participate or may excuse themselves from a hearing based on such a conflict or bias. A hearing officer may request a case be assigned to another hearing officer due to a conflict of interest or bias.
xi. All participants are expected to act with integrity by providing honest answers, following established procedures, and maintaining confidentiality.

xii. Hearings will be conducted in a civil manner. Any participant disrupting the conduct process will be excluded from the remainder of the hearing. The chair is responsible for ensuring civility during a hearing.

xiii. Pending resolution of a complaint, student status may only be altered to protect University interests and/or the safety and security of individual members of the University community. Such actions may include interim suspensions, restriction of privileges including access to certain areas of campus, and No Contact Orders. The Director of the Office of Student Conduct is responsible for determining if such actions are necessary, seeking approval if necessary.

xiv. Determination of responsibility for violating this policy will be based on the standard of preponderance of the evidence board hearings. This means that the individual or group will make findings of fact that are more likely than not, based on the entire body of evidence presented.

xv. Written notification of the outcome of a hearing, including the reasons for the decision, findings of fact, and an explanation of the sanctions, will be sent within a reasonable timeframe from the conclusion of the conduct proceedings by either the hearing officer or the chair of a conduct board. Notifications will be sent to the complainant and respondent. Other notifications may be sent in order for the university to comply with applicable victim notification laws for reporting the results of disciplinary proceedings.

b. Student Appeal Process
   i. The outcome of any hearing board proceeding may be appealed by either the complainant or the respondent in cases of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
   ii. Appeals must meet all of the following criteria in order to be considered:
       1. it must be in writing;
       2. it must contain one or more valid reasons (as described in the section below); and
       3. it must be submitted to the Director of the Office of Student Conduct or designee within five (5) working days after receipt of the written notice of the hearing board decision.
   iii. The original determinations of the board will be considered final and conclusive if an appeal is not received within the five (5) business day time limit.
   iv. In cases not involving suspension or expulsion from the University, the written appeal is reviewed by the Associate Provost for Student Success, or their designee. The decision of the Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee is final.
   v. In cases involving separation including suspension and expulsion from the university, an appeal board, composed of a chairperson, one student, and one faculty/staff member determine whether grounds for an appeal exist. If a student is not available to serve on the appeal board, the director of the Office of Student Conduct may appoint a staff or faculty member serve as the third appeal board member. If the appeal board determines that the criteria for appeal (VII.3..b.vi) has been met, their decision shall be forwarded to the Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee for review. The Associate Provost for Student Success or their designee will review the decision and may affirm the Hearing Board decision, reduce the sanction determined by the Hearing Board, dismiss some or all of the alleged violations, remand the case to the Hearing Board to consider new evidence, or remand the case for a new hearing.

vi. Appeals must be based on at least one of the following reasons to be considered:

1. whether the hearing process was conducted in accordance with prescribed procedures;
2. whether there is new evidence or relevant information, not available at the time of the original hearing, which may alter the Hearing Authority's findings;
3. whether the University regulations alleged to have been violated were properly interpreted or applied by the Hearing Authority;
4. whether the sanction imposed was proportionate to the gravity of the misconduct.

c. Student Sanction Statement:

Any student found responsible for violating this policy will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from Censure (written warning) to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous conduct code violations.

Range of Sanctions
The following sanctions comprise a range of official action that may be imposed for violation of this policy by individuals or groups. One or more sanctions may be imposed at the discretion of the hearing officer or conduct board in an effort to promote behavioral change and/or provide protection to members of the university community. Sanctions also may attempt to teach alternative behaviors; increase personal and social skills; increase a student’s awareness of obligations to others; demonstrate implications of actions; and explain rationale behind regulations.

This list does not limit the actions available to a hearing officer or conduct board and is not inclusive of all possible actions that could be taken as a result of a violation of University policy. Students found responsible for violations will receive a minimum of disciplinary warning (censure) with expulsion being the maximum sanction.

Refer to all possible sanctions in the SRU Student Code of Conduct page 14.

4. Retention of Records Regarding the Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Policy
The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for maintaining records relating to sexual misconduct reports, investigations and resolutions. All written records associated with the resolution of a complaint pertaining to a formal investigation will be maintained in accordance with Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania’s Record Retention Policy. The Office of Student Conduct keeps records for seven (7) years and in compliance with FERPA, and then purges the records, unless a suspension, dismissal, or No Trespass was administered, in which case the conduct record is kept indefinitely.

5. Special Complaint Process Provisions
   a. Attempted violations
In most circumstances, the university will treat attempts to commit any of the violations listed in this policy as if those attempts had been completed.

b. University as a Complainant
   As necessary, the University reserves the right to initiate a complaint, to serve as a Complainant and to initiate complaint proceedings without a formal complaint by the victim of sexual misconduct.

c. False Reports
   The University will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents, and it will take action against those who make such reports. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct to make an intentionally false report of any policy violation and it may also violate Pennsylvania criminal statutes and civil defamation laws.

d. Victim and Witness Immunity
   The University community encourages the reporting of sexual misconduct violations and crimes by victims and witnesses. Sometimes, victims or witnesses are hesitant to report to University officials or participate in complaint processes because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, in particular underage drinking, at the time of the incident. It is in the best interests of this community that as many victims as possible choose to report to University officials, and that witnesses come forward to share what they know. In circumstances when an individual may have committed a policy violation like underage drinking but makes a report, the university will focus on the more severe alleged policy violation of sexual misconduct.

e. Bystander Engagement
   The welfare of students in our community is of paramount importance. At times, students on and off campus may need assistance. The university encourages students to offer help and assistance to others in need. Sometimes, students are hesitant to offer assistance to others, for fear that they may get themselves in trouble (for example, as a student who is underage and has been drinking might hesitate to help take a sexual misconduct victim to the University Police). The university also offers Bystander Intervention training (“Step Up”) for students, staff and faculty. For more information about Step Up, please contact Renee Bateman at 724-738-4206 or Karla Fonner at 724-738-2121.

Parental Notification
The university’s primary relationship is with the student and not the parent. The university, in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, and, if the student is under 21 years of age, any alcohol and other drug violations. Additionally, university officials will directly inform parents when requested to do so by a student, in a life-threatening situation or if a student has signed a permission form that allows such communication. The university also reserves the right to designate which university officials have a need to know about individual conduct complaints pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

6. Notification of Outcomes
The outcome of a campus hearing is part of the educational record of respondent, and is protected from release under a federal law, FERPA. However, the university observes the legal exceptions as follows:
a. Complainants in cases of non-consensual sexual contact or intercourse, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, stalking, or relationship violence incidents have a right to be informed in writing of the outcome, essential findings and sanctions of the hearing.

b. The university may release publicly the name, nature of the violation and the sanction for any student who is found in violation of a university policy that is a “crime of violence,” including: arson, burglary, robbery, criminal homicide, sex offenses, assault, destruction/damage/vandalism of property and kidnapping/abduction. The university will release this information to the complainant in any of these offenses regardless of the outcome.

7. Alternative Testimony Options
For sexual misconduct complaints and other complaints of a sensitive nature, whether the alleged victim is serving as the complainant or as a witness, alternative testimony options will be given, such as placing a privacy screen in the hearing room or allowing the alleged victim to testify outside the physical presence of the accused individual, such as in another room. These arrangements will not limit the respondent’s right to hear and address all evidence presented against the respondent.

8. Past Sexual History/Character
The past sexual history or sexual character of a party will not be admissible by the other party in the investigation or hearing unless such information is determined to be relevant by the university hearing board. All such information sought to be admitted will be presumed not relevant, and any request to overcome this presumption by the party seeking its admission must be included in the complaint/response or in a subsequent written request, and must be presented in advance of the hearing to the Director of Student Conduct.

While previous conduct violations by the respondent are not generally admissible as information in determining responsibility for the present alleged violation, the Director of Student Conduct may supply previous complaint information to be considered in sanctioning to the conduct board.

9. Additional Provisions: Complainant and Respondent Rights
Slippery Rock University will make every effort to ensure that the complainant and respondent receive the following:

a. A timely investigation and response to complaints made in good faith to the university administration.

b. That the respondent and the complainant will have an opportunity to have one other person present (in support or advisory roles) during all campus disciplinary hearings including hearings addressing incidents involving sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. The adviser will not have a speaking role in the hearing.

c. The respondent and the complainant will be informed of the outcome and sanction of the disciplinary hearing they are involved in when the offense involves sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, or sexual harassment.

d. The respondent and the complainant will be fully informed of the Student Code of Conduct procedures. as well as the nature and extent of all alleged violations contained within the complaint.

e. The respondent and the complainant will be able to appeal the finding and sanction of the hearing board, in accordance with the standard for appeal established by the university in accordance with the procedures established within the Appeals section of the Student Code of Conduct (Procedures VII c2).
f. Information will be made available for both the respondent and complainant about available services, including but not limited to counseling, mental health, medical, and other services both on and off campus.

g. In addition to processing the incident through the Office of Student Conduct, the complainant will be given information on how to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including local police, and the option to be assisted in notifying appropriate authorities.

h. The complainant or respondent or witness may request a No Trespass Order or No Contact Order in order to limit any stalking, threatening, harassing or other improper behavior that presents a danger to the welfare of anyone involved in the process.

i. The complainant or respondent may request a change in housing, work study or class arrangements after an alleged incident, providing that the request is reasonable.

j. The respondent and complainant each have the option to be present and hear all testimony and evidence related to disciplinary charges in cases of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, or sexual harassment.

k. In a case of sexual assault, prior sexual history not relevant to the case will not be admitted as evidence.

l. The respondent and the complainant have the option to submit an impact statement at the campus conduct proceeding and have that statement considered by the board.

m. The respondent and complainant may request to review information regarding the complaint in accordance with confidentiality limitations imposed by state and federal law.

n. The respondent and complainant will be informed of the names of all known witnesses who will be called to give testimony (this includes the name(s) of the complainant(s), which will always be revealed) prior to the hearing.

Frequently Asked Questions about the Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Procedures
Some of the most commonly asked questions regarding the University’s Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct Procedures are summarized below:

Does information about a complaint remain private?
Respecting the privacy and confidentiality of all individuals involved in complaints of sexual misconduct is extremely important to Slippery Rock University. The University will make every effort to ensure that only those who need to know about a complaint or administrative case have information about that matter.

In that context, however, the University has legal obligations that sometimes require employees to share information about a complaint of sexual misconduct with administrators whose job it is to enforce this policy and the laws and regulations that prohibit sexual misconduct. The purpose of those “sharing” obligations is to ensure that allegations of sexual misconduct are investigated fully and complainants and respondents are treated properly and are provided resources to assist them.

As stated above, reports of sexual misconduct to certain campus personnel—campus mental health counselors, can be made completely confidentially. Those employees do not have an obligation to share the information with others. (Off-campus rape crisis resources (such as VOICE) also can maintain confidentiality.) Staff members of the Student Health Services and the Director of the Women’s Center and the Director of the Pride Center also provide confidential resources but with a limited reporting requirement. This is discussed in greater detail, in section V.A. above. All other campus personnel are required to report a complaint of sexual assault to the Title IX Coordinator, so that the University may meet its legal obligations of enforcement and victim assistance.

Where privacy is not strictly kept, it still will be tightly controlled on a need-to-know basis. Dissemination of information and/or written materials to persons not involved in the complaint procedure is not permitted. Violations of the privacy of the complainant or the respondent may lead to conduct action by the University as it can be viewed as a form of retaliation.

In all complaints of sexual misconduct, the complainant and the respondent will be informed of the outcome and any appeals that are made.

If there is a report of an act of alleged sexual misconduct to an official representative of the University, the Title IX Coordinator will be notified. University Police may also be notified. This does not mean charges will automatically be filed or that a victim must speak with the police, but the institution may be legally required to notify law enforcement authorities.

Finally, the University must also statistically report the occurrence on campus of crimes, including certain sex offenses, in an annual report of campus crime statistics. This statistical report does not include personally identifiable information.

Will complainant’s or respondent’s parents be told?

In accordance with FERPA, if you are a dependent student and you receive a sanction for your behavior through the Office of Student Conduct, a letter will be sent to your parents in cases involving probation or above. If you are the complainant in an incident of sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, information will not be sent to your parents.

Will the respondent be given the name of the complainant?

Yes, if the Complainant file a formal complaint. Sexual misconduct is a serious offense and the respondent has a right to know the identity of the complainant. If there is a hearing, the University does provide options for questioning without confrontation, including using a room divider or using separate hearing rooms. Complainants can request those accommodations during the pre-hearing meeting.

As a Complainant, do I have to identify the Respondent?

Yes, if you want formal disciplinary action to be taken; however if you wish to receive information about resources or discuss your options you are not required to share that information.

What do I do if I am accused of sexual misconduct?

DO NOT contact the Complainant.
You may want to contact someone in the campus community who may act as your adviser. If a respondent is unsure of who to contact, they can contact Student Intervention Services (724-738-2507) to discuss their options.
You also may contact the Title IX Coordinator (724-738-2016), who can explain the University’s procedures for addressing sexual misconduct complaints. You may ask any question that you may have during this meeting.

It may be helpful to talk with a counselor. The Counseling Center (724-738-2034) is available Monday through Friday 8-4:30 during the academic year (it is closed in the summer). Counseling Center services are confidential.

The Student Government Association can provide a consultation with an attorney at no cost to students. To contact SGA, please call 724-738-2656.

Will I (as a victim) have to pay for counseling/medical care?
Medical care may be covered by crime victims’ compensation or your Student Health Services fees. VOICe is the contact to inquire about crime victims’ compensation. These services include but are not limited to medical and legal advocacy, group sessions, and one on one appointments. The services are free and confidential and can be accessed 24/7 by calling 1-800-400-8551.

When your insurance is billed from Student Health Services, the bill will only say that you had an office visit (no specifics will be provided).

Forensic (sexual assault) examinations are done at Butler Memorial or Grove City Hospital and will be covered by crime victims’ compensation.

On campus counseling services are covered by your student fees, no additional costs will be accrued. Students are eligible for services through Butler County’s crime victim service agency (VOICe). These services include but are not limited to medical and legal advocacy, group sessions, and one on one appointments. The services are free and confidential and can be accessed 24/7 by calling 1-800-400-8551.

Additionally, students can seek counseling from off-campus clinical service providers. These providers will bill insurance; for a list of providers and accepted insurance, please contact Student Intervention Services at 724-738-2507).

What about legal advice?
An attorney is not required for the campus conduct proceeding, but a student may choose to bring an attorney to serve as his/her advisor. Attorneys serving as advisors in the campus conduct hearing do not have a speaking role. Note that each student is only permitted to have a single advisor. Student Government Association can provide a consult with an attorney at no cost to students. To contact SGA, please call 724-738-2656.

Victims of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking do not need a private attorney to pursue criminal prosecution. Representation in criminal matters is handled by the District Attorney’s Office. For more information contact the District Attorney’s Office at (724) 284-5222 or a VOICe Advocate at 1-800-400-8551.

Respondents may retain additional counsel at their own expense if they determine that they need legal advice about criminal prosecution or other legal options.

What about changing residence hall rooms?
Occasionally students feel uncomfortable in their residence hall because the respondent or complainant lives on the same floor or in the same building. If a complainant or respondent wants to move, they may request a room change by contacting the Office of Student Intervention Services (724-738-2507) or by contacting Residence Life’s main line at 724-738-2082. Room changes can only be accommodated if space is available, but the University will make every effort to make such changes when an allegation of sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking has occurred.

Are there other accommodations I should be aware of?
The University may be able to assist you with other accommodations, including but not limited to:

- Assistance with or rescheduling an academic assignment (paper, exams, etc.).
- Taking an incomplete in a class.
- Assistance with transferring class sections.
- Temporary withdrawal.
- Assistance with alternative course completion options.
- Other accommodations for safety as necessary.

Please contact the Office of Student Intervention Services 724-738-2507 for more information)

What should I do about preserving evidence of a sexual assault?

Having evidence collected by a specially trained forensic nurse will help to keep all options available to a victim, but will not obligate him or her to any course of action. Collecting evidence can assist the authorities in pursuing criminal charges, should the victim later decide to exercise that option.

In order to collect evidence the victim should have an exam within 120 hours after the assault.

If you report to the student health center (Rhoads Hall, 724-738-2052), health center staff can provide transport to the local hospital for the exam. At this time they can also connect you with an advocate who can explain the process and be with you the entire time and answer any questions you may have. The exam will be paid for by crime victim’s compensation and is not billed to your insurance.

You may also choose to report directly to the local hospital (either Grove City or Butler Memorial) for the exam. Please be advised, if you report to the local hospital, as part of their protocol, local police and a crime victim advocate will be notified. It is your decision whether to speak with police or the advocate at this time.

While at the hospital, the hospital staff will collect evidence, check for injuries, address pregnancy concerns and address the possibility of exposure to sexually transmitted infections.

If you have changed clothing since the assault, bring the clothing you had on at the time of the assault with you to the hospital in a clean, sanitary container such as a clean paper grocery bag or wrapped in a clean sheet (plastic containers do not breathe, and may render evidence useless).

If you have not changed clothes, bring a change of clothes with you to the hospital, if possible, as they will likely keep the clothes you are wearing as evidence (this clothing will probably not be returned to you).

You can take a support person with you to the hospital, and the person can accompany you through the exam.

If you live at the site where the incident occurred try to leave everything as it was at the time of the incident – leave all sheets, towels, etc. that may bear evidence for the police to collect.

Will a complainant be sanctioned when reporting a sexual misconduct policy violation if he/she has illegally used drugs or alcohol?

The university will abide by the Medical Amnesty Law which states that underage intoxicated individuals who make contact with emergency personnel for themselves or another person who is in need of medical attention will be protected from prosecution.

Like many police departments, the Office of Student Conduct is primarily interested in the complainant’s health and safety, not alcohol or drug violations in cases of a severe nature including cases of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. Questions about alcohol or drug use may be asked at a university hearing. These questions are used to determine the complainant’s ability to consent and are not used to sanction the complainant.
Please note this exception: if you are violent or hostile with service providers, we may consider this to be dangerous behavior that may be sanctioned.

Can I choose to remain silent if I am a respondent in a hearing?
If a respondent chooses to participate in a hearing and chooses to remain silent, a negative inference may be drawn by the hearing board. However, the hearing board will consider all information presented in determining if the respondent is in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

What should I do if I have any other questions?
If you have additional questions, you may contact the director of the Office of Student Conduct (not confidential) in 008 Patterson Hall (or 724-738-4985 phone) or Student Intervention Services (not confidential) in 008 Patterson Hall (724-738-2507 phone). If you would like to ask questions confidentially, you may contact Student Health Services (confidential) 24/7 in Rhoads Hall (or 724-738-2052 phone), or the Student Counseling Center (confidential) during regular business hours in Rhoads Hall (or 724-738-2034 phone).

APPENDIX K: NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS UNDER FERPA

Student’s Rights under FERPA
(PL 93-380 & Right to Know Law: PA PL 390)

For the purposes of complying with FERPA, an applicant to SRU becomes a "student" on the first day of the first term/semester in which the student is registered at the University. The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access.
   a. Students should submit to the Executive Director of Academic Records and Summer School, Dean, Department Chairperson, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The University official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the University official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.
   a. Students may ask the University to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading.
   b. If the University decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the University will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

2. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
   a. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the university has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Council of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.
   b. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.
   c. Upon request, the University may disclose education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.
3. As of January 3, 2012, the U.S. Department of Education’s FERPA regulations expand the circumstances under which your education records and personally identifiable information (PII) contained in such records—including your Social Security Number, grades, or other private information—may be accessed without your consent. First, the U.S. Comptroller General, the U.S. Attorney General, the U.S. Secretary of Education, or state and local education authorities (“Federal and State Authorities”) may allow access to your records and PII without your consent to any third party designated by a Federal or State Authority to evaluate a federal- or state-supported education program. The evaluation may relate to any program that is “principally engaged in the provision of education,” such as early childhood education and job training, as well as any program that is administered by an education agency or institution. Second, Federal and State Authorities may allow access to your education records and PII without your consent to researchers performing certain types of studies, in certain cases even when we object to or do not request such research. Federal and State Authorities must obtain certain use-restriction and data security promises from the entities that they authorize to receive your PII, but the Authorities need not maintain direct control over such entities. In addition, in connection with Statewide Longitudinal Data Systems, State Authorities may collect, compile, permanently retain, and share without your consent PII from your education records, and they may track your participation in education and other programs by linking such PII to other personal information about you that they obtain from other Federal or State data sources, including workforce development, unemployment insurance, child welfare, juvenile justice, military service, and migrant student records systems.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Slippery Rock University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

Copies of the University’s policy governing the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act are available in the Office of Academic Records and Summer School, Room 107, Old Main. Questions concerning FERPA should be referred to the Executive Director of Academic Records and Summer School.

APPENDIX N: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SRU STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Frequently Asked Questions
Answers to commonly asked questions about Slippery Rock University conduct procedures appear below. Students are encouraged to review the Student Code of Conduct located on our website.

Why does Slippery Rock University uphold disciplinary rules?
Slippery Rock University represents a community. Like any community, certain standards must be established to instruct community members on what is permissible. As an institution of higher education, some rules relate to expectations for academic integrity and define cheating and plagiarism. Some rules explain what is permitted or not permitted in residence halls. Other rules emphasize that members of the Slippery Rock University community must comply with state and federal laws. By establishing these rules the university preserves the right to remove someone from the community who may be endangering the welfare of others.

Why do off-campus incidents get referred to the Office of Student Conduct? Slippery Rock University is an integral part of the surrounding community including Slippery Rock Borough, Slippery Rock Township, and Butler County. Any incident of a disciplinary nature occurring in the surrounding community will affect the ability of the university to maintain positive relationships with local citizens. Any significant incident that implicates those involved as representatives of Slippery Rock University, regardless of where the incident occurs, are also subject to university disciplinary action. By taking disciplinary action, the university upholds the expectation that students demonstrate good citizenship.

Why do students have to pay for and take an alcohol class?
The Alcohol and Other Drug Program is a required component of alcohol and drug related disciplinary offenses. The program costs $45 for the first referral and $70 for a second referral. The university has created this program as an educational response to violations of the law and university policy. Students who participate in the program learn more about laws relating to alcohol and other drugs and the impact that alcohol and/or drug use may have on their educational and occupational career. The program places particular emphasis on the culture of peer acceptance surrounding destructive alcohol and drug usage and balances issues of responsible decision making with legal obligations. Students referred to the program pay a fee for the program materials and the professional counselor that presents the workshops.

When are parents informed of disciplinary action?
Slippery Rock University policies have been established to notify the parents of dependent students of disciplinary action involving alcohol or drugs; sanctions of disciplinary probation; scheduling of a hearing to consider possible separation from the university; or suspension or dismissal decisions. Because the student is registered as dependent, the university has adopted the position that notifying the parents allows them the opportunity to advise their son or daughter in making appropriate decisions related to the disciplinary process.
Why does the Office of Student Conduct put holds on student registration?
A hold is placed on a student's registration only if the student has failed to complete a requirement established through a disciplinary sanction. In most cases a registration hold signifies failure to complete the Alcohol and Other Drug Program by the established deadline. Holds might also signify that required documentation of restitution or educational assignments has not been received. A student notified of a hold should contact the Office of Student Conduct at 724.738.4985 to determine what actions are required to remove the hold.

What disciplinary notations appear on a student's academic transcript?
The only notation posted on a student's transcript for disciplinary action is the statement, "Separated Under Provision of Code of Conduct" for the period of time that a student is serving a disciplinary suspension or dismissal. There is no record on the transcript for any other type of sanction.

Could an education major who gets cited for an alcohol violation still teach?
In most cases, yes. This is a question where the answer depends on the circumstances. The more serious the circumstances, the more likely the incident could affect the teacher certification process. Students who desire to teach should understand the following factors:

1. Teachers are held to high standards of conduct. Anyone who wishes to teach should adopt those high standards in order to demonstrate professional responsibility.
2. Violations of the law are matters of public record. At Slippery Rock University the student newspaper, The Rocket, publishes the names of students who are arrested or cited by local police agencies. Students in the College of Education are routinely contacted to discuss any situation resulting in the publishing of their name in the police blotter.
3. Disciplinary record checks are conducted as a matter of routine prior to the assignment of student teaching placements. The College of Education reserves the right to withhold or cancel placement of a student teaching assignment based upon a proper review of a student's conduct.
4. Students must submit criminal record check documentation as part of their academic requirements and as part of any job application. Those criminal record checks will reflect information associated with a fingerprint record. Most citations for disorderly conduct, disorderly house, or underage consumption do not result in fingerprint records and, therefore, will not appear on the criminal records clearance form.
5. The College of Education ultimately determines whether a student receives certification. Any questions concerning the eligibility of a candidate for student teaching or certification should be directed to the Dean of the College of Education, 105 McKay Education Building, 724.738.2007.

Does a student charged with violating the Student Code of Conduct need an attorney?
No. The conduct process is educational in nature. The intent of proceedings is to determine the facts of a particular incident and to make an appropriate decision concerning those facts. Ordinarily a student will understand the process, the options available for resolving an incident, and any recommended outcomes. Students are encouraged to identify an advisor to assist them in making disciplinary decisions, particularly if a hearing is scheduled. An advisor may be anyone of the student's choosing: a friend, a parent, a trusted faculty member, or an attorney. The role of the advisor is to consult privately with the student during any disciplinary proceedings. Advisors are not permitted to directly participate by asking questions or making statements during a hearing. Students might consider consulting an attorney in those cases where significant criminal proceedings are pending for the same incident being reviewed through the disciplinary process.
Can I choose to remain silent if I am a respondent in a hearing?
If a respondent chooses to participate in a hearing and chooses to remain silent, a negative inference may be drawn by the hearing board. However, the hearing board will consider all information presented in determining if the respondent is in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

What should I do if I have any other questions?
If you have additional questions, you may contact the director of the Office of Student Conduct (not confidential) in 008 Patterson Hall (or 724-738-4985 phone) or Student Intervention Services (not confidential) in 008 Patterson Hall (724-738-2507 phone). If you would like to ask questions confidentially, you may contact Student Health Services (confidential) 24/7 in Rhoads Hall (or 724-738-2052 phone), or the Student Counseling Center (confidential) during regular business hours in Rhoads Hall (or 724-738-2034 phone).
APPENDIX O: VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES:
HEARING BOARDS

Hearing Board members play a crucial role in the adjudication of student conduct matters and ensure that students and/or student organizations are given the opportunity to have their cases heard by a representative body of the university.

Student Conduct Hearing Boards are comprised of students, faculty and staff who have displayed a commitment to upholding the community standards set forth by the Code and by the Mission of the University. Members are trained in the hearing board process. To learn more about hearing board opportunities, contact the Office of Student Conduct at 724-738-4985.

II. ROOM ASSIGNMENTS AND CHANGES: The University reserves the right to make, revise, change and/or modify your residence hall, room, and/or roommate assignment at any time it is determined appropriate. Assignments are made on a “space available” basis. There is no guarantee that a specific residence hall, room or roommate preference will be honored. Also, the criteria utilized for making roommate selections (i.e., non smoker, smoker, course of study) cannot be guaranteed; however, these criteria will be met as closely as possible. It will be each roommate’s responsibility to work out living arrangement guidelines. Community Assistants are available to assist in the development of a Roommate Agreement.
III. ROOM CONSOLIDATION: All residence hall rooms will be used to full capacity. The University reserves the right to deny you the privilege of occupying a room at less than maximum capacity any time during the academic year. The University has exclusive right, at any time, to reassign you to another room in any residence hall or assign a roommate to the room in which you are assigned in order to consolidate residence hall space. If occupancy levels permit, and you choose to stay in an under occupied room for the remainder of the semester, you will be assessed a thirty (30) percent up charge to the current rate of the room type you are assigned. If you change rooms and your new assignment is classified at a higher rate, you will be billed the per week difference in the cost for the remainder of the semester (i.e., a student moving from a double room to a four single suite room). The University reserves the right to make placements out of temporary housing before considering requests for relocation from students already residing in permanent housing.

IV. THE RESIDENCE HALL CONTRACT AGREEMENT: For students enrolling at the University during the fall semester, the residence hall agreement is for both the fall and spring semesters of the 2017-2018 academic year and is a binding agreement with you and your parent(s) or legal guardian(s), if you are younger than eighteen (18) years of age. Only students who are eligible to register or are registered for classes will be assigned to a residence hall and room.

Students residing in the residence halls are expected to abide by regulations as listed in Residence Life Living Guide and SRU’s Code of Conduct. Violations of any of these regulations may lead to serious disciplinary action including but not limited to removal from the residence halls to another campus location, termination of the agreement, suspension and/or arrest.

Upper class students that desire a fall only residence hall contract because of December graduation may apply for a fall only contract. Space is limited and the university reserves the right to determine which rooms, and room types are classified as fall only. Rates for fall only contracts are pre-set. Students approved for a fall only contract will not receive a refund or proration of the $175 deposit.

Residence hall agreements may not be assigned to another student. If, after signing this agreement and paying your advance deposit, you decide to cancel, the entire academic year (both fall and spring semester) residence hall fees will be forfeited UNLESS you request and receive approval, in writing, from the Office of Housing and Residence Life for reasons of death, illness or disabling injury of your parent(s) or legal guardian(s) (verification of the physical condition of the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) must be presented), academic suspension, withdrawal, release or transfer. If you return for any reason during the fall or spring semester of the same academic year, the approval from the Office of Housing and Residence Life shall be considered rescinded and you will remain responsible for all costs for the entire academic year.

V. RESIDENCE HALL ROOM DEPOSIT: The $175 advance residence hall room deposit is paid prior to the opening of the fall semester but is credited to the spring semester’s housing bill. The $175 deposit is required of all students and is not waived for any reason. If you miss the deadline for the residence hall agreement and deposit, you will not be guaranteed a residence hall room assignment.

Information on additional meal plans can be accessed through the Dining Services webpage: https://www.aviserves.com/sru/

II. If you wish to change your meal plan or add additional flex to your account, you may do so on-line through the MyHousing/MyDining portal via the Residence Life webpage: https://reslife.sru.edu/

e. Flex Funds may be increased in $25 increments at any time on-line.
