PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Do you write, teach writing, or mentor writers? Then sharpen your writing skills and increase your marketability with Slippery Rock University's Written Literate Practice certificate. The certificate is a 12-credit, online program that introduces students to diverse writing practices explored through rhetorical, digital, historical, and linguistic frameworks. The Written Literate Practice certificate allows students who may not have time to pursue Slippery Rock University's Master of Arts degree to earn a credential that advances their career prospects and develops their talents.

The Written Literate Practice certificate can also be applied to the Master of Arts degree in Languages, Literatures, Cultures and Writing (LLCW), formerly English, if students later decide to complete remaining course requirements.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SRU's Written Literate Practice certificate offers the following benefits:

- Convenient and flexible scheduling
- Courses 100% online
- Faculty with Quality Matters expertise in Online Instruction Design
- Experience in digital writing and contemporary publishing

All faculty have doctoral degrees and are committed to teaching excellence.
