

SRU trustees round out Presidential Search Committee; recognize departing student trustee

Dec. 8, 2017

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. – The final piece of Slippery Rock University’s Presidential Search Committee was put into place today when the University’s council of trustees voted to name Janet Sargert as the final member.

Sargert, a 1963 SRU graduate and owner of Sargert Consulting Services who sits on the Slippery Rock University Foundation, Inc. board of directors, fills the third and final “at-large” position on the search committee.

SRU's presidential search was extended at the University's Oct. 6 quarterly business meeting when the trustees failed to approve a motion to advance the names of two candidates - Bruce Murphy, president of Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, Louisiana and Amir Mohammadi, vice president for finance, administration and advancement services at SRU - to Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education board of governors for consideration as SRU's 17th president.

Membership on the committee is prescribed by Pennsylvania's State System Board of Governors Policy Section 1983-13-A: Process for Recommending a Presidential Appointment.

With the approval of Sargert, a recommendation for approval of the full search committee will be forwarded to the interim chancellor of the State System for approval.
