

Accessing Kurzweil Online

It is your responsibility to access Kurzweil 3000 online to view your textbooks. The online version of Kurzweil will include the most recent version of the software.

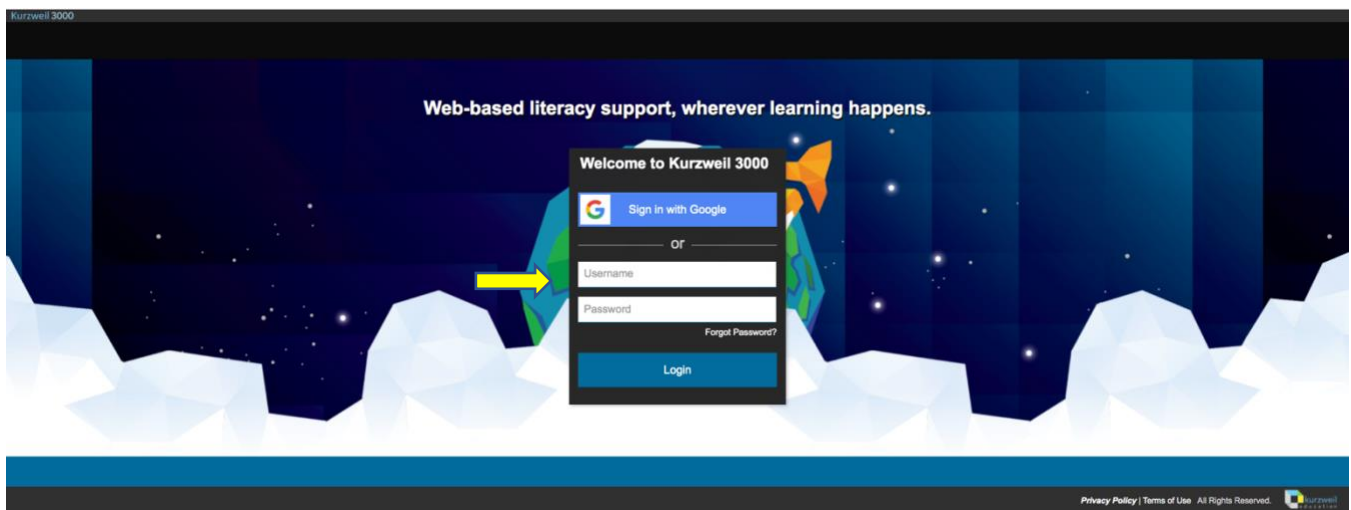

Kurzweil Online:

1. Navigate to the Kurzweil website: <https://www.kurzweiledu.com/default.html>
2. Click on the Login link located at the top right-hand corner of the screen.

3. Enter your username and password into the Kurzweil 3000 login screen. If you do not have your this information, please send an email to disabilityservices@sru.edu from your SRU email to request this information.

4. You are now logged into your Universal Library, or home page, of Kurzweil 3000.
5. From here, you can access your requested textbooks from ODS under your public folder. You can also upload documents, articles, etc. in PDF format to have read to you.

If you have any questions or concerns about this process, please contact disabilityservices@sru.edu or contact Kurzweil customer support at customerservice@kurzweiledu.com.
