

Mission Statement

To provide quality online education and scholarly activities for health care professionals in an environment that supports the needs of adult learners in addressing the health care issues of the global community.

Program Outcomes

1. Uses effective communication in formal and informal interactions with individuals and groups including clients, families, and communities.
2. Applies critical thinking process to professional nursing practice.
3. Synthesizes knowledge from nursing, scientific, and humanistic disciplines to guide professional nursing practice.
4. Uses the nursing process to promote, maintain, and restore health for individuals, families, and groups within global communities.
5. Provides leadership within interdisciplinary health care systems in assuring high quality, cost-effective care and in promoting the health and well-being of individuals, families, and groups within communities.
6. Incorporates research evidence in clinical decision making and professional nursing practice..
7. Evaluates the delivery of care in relation to professional/legal standards, ethical principles, and sensitivity to the cultural differences of clients.
8. Values life-long learning and professional development.