

Fulbright U.K. Summer Program Grant

Application Deadline: February

Overview

- Three-to-four week programs for US undergraduate students. Participants can explore the culture, heritage and history of the UK while experiencing higher education at a United Kingdom university
- Students apply to one of several U.K. universities that entails programs centered around various culture concepts. This list of universities includes:
 - University of Exeter, University of Sussex, University of Bristol, University of Westminster, Glasgow School of Art and the University of Strathclyde. University of Birmingham, Aberystwyth University, American Institute for Foreign Technology, and Queen's University Belfast
- Individuals accepted will have a chance to immerse themselves in a learning environment alongside leading academics and professionals, as well as an enriching culture.
 - Includes opportunities to explore the surrounding attractions such as museums, castles, battlegrounds, and areas of scenic beauty
- Fulbright Commission covers multiple institute costs such as:
 - International travel, tuition/fees of host institution, room and board, and occasionally a daily allowances for meals

Eligibility Requirements

- Current U.S. citizen with a valid passport
- At least 18 years old by the time of program start
- Availability to participate in the program in its entirety
- Minimum GPA of 3.7 by the time of program start
- Have 2 years of undergraduate study left after the institute program end
- Little or no experience with studying or traveling outside of the U.S.

Application Materials

- Review the Terms and Conditions found on the Institute's website
- Completion of an online application which includes short answer essays
- Scan and upload an official transcript in PDF form
- 2 letters of references, 1 being from a recent professor
- After initial applications have been submitted, Skype interviews will be conducted with students who advanced in the process

Additional information can be found at <http://www.fulbright.org.uk/>. If you are interested in applying, please contact Career Education and Development at 724-738-2028