

Graduate International Estimated Cost of Attendance 2024-2025

All international applicants that require either an F-1 or J-1 visa for entry to the United States must verify finances. This is not used to determine academic qualification for admission but must be satisfactorily documented for the issuance of the Forms I-20 or DS-2019 that are used to obtain a student visa through the U.S. Consulate.

Applicants must submit a certified original bank statement indicating that sufficient funds are available for at least the first year. If the bank statement is not your own, the sponsor must complete the SRU Financial support statement. Personal bank letters/Affidavits are NOT acceptable. Below are the estimated costs by graduate program.

*Tuition and fee (estimates) for all graduate programs are calculated based upon the various required numbers of credits in the first full year of study.

The enrollment deposit of ($500) is required to confirm enrollment and used to hold a space. It is applied as a credit towards tuition in the first semester.

Didactic fees are applied in year I, Clinical fees are applied in year II.

To fairly compare costs between universities, be sure to look at both institutional and additional costs.

All costs are subject to change on an annual basis.

The tuition rate is determined by the Board of Governors of the State System of Higher Education.

Books, supplies, and personal living expenses are not billed by SRU. Actual costs are dependent on a student's personal spending.

Graduate students are not required to live on campus but have the option. For purposes of estimating room & meals for immigration purposes the average on campus cost is used.
