Review and Select Benefits

If you are eligible for benefits, you must complete your benefit elections within 30 days of your date of hire.

Benefits Summary - State System – provides an overview of State System benefit information for APSCUF/OPEIU/SPFPA/POA/Nonrepresented represented employees

- PPO Medical Plan Information - View the medical coverage summary, PPO Handbook, and preventive schedule
- Prescription Drug Plan Information – View the prescription drug summary, mail order pharmacy information, and associated copays
- If you are enrolling dependents on your health care coverage, you will need to complete and provide the following documents:
 - ☐ The Spouse Health Care Enrollment Attestation must be complete before your spouse can be added to your coverage.
 - ☐ If applicable, the Spouse - Employer Information Form is also required.
 - ☐ You must provide a copy of your marriage certificate to your HR Benefits Manager if adding a spouse to coverage.
 - ☐ A birth certificate naming you as the parent (or adoption papers) must be provided to your HR Benefits Manager for each dependent child you wish to add to your coverage.
 - ☐ You will need to provide your HR Benefits Manager with a copy of each dependent's social security card.
- Employee Premiums are listed according to an employee's pay frequency.

- Healthy U Wellness Program Information – Participation is voluntary, and participants pay a lower contribution to health care coverage. To continue receiving the lower rates in future plan years, employees must complete the applicable Healthy U program requirements.

Note: Employees hired after April 1, 2026 automatically pay the lower Healthy U participant rates after June 30, 2026.

Health benefit coverage will end on May 28, 2027 for part-time temporary faculty as well as full-time temporary faculty members who do not have a reasonable expectation of a 100% fall 2027 semester appointment.

PA Faculty Health and Welfare Fund – The Fund provides dental and vision benefits to eligible faculty members. Refer to the State APSCUF website for benefit eligibility and information on these benefits.

Retirement:

If you are eligible for retirement benefits, you must select a retirement plan within 30 days of your eligibility date. If you do not make an election within the required timeframe, you will automatically be enrolled in SERS. Retirement elections are irrevocable, so please review all available information carefully before making your selection.

Enter your election online via the Self-Service Workplace \(FIORI\) on the My Benefits Enrollment tile within 30 days of your date of hire.

- ☐ To determine which group retirement plan is best for you, review the information at: www.passhe.edu/retirement which includes:
- ☐ Group Retirement Plan video (approximately 5 min.) for a summary of the basic differences between the retirement plan options.
- ☐ Comparison of Retirement Plans
- ☐ ARP Company Comparison Guide

If you have selected ARP in My First Days, then you may navigate to the Retirement@Work portal to complete the setup of your account with TIAA and/or Fidelity, select your investments, and name your beneficiaries.

If you have questions regarding the options available, you may contact retirement consultants by using the following methods:

- State Employees' Retirement System (SERS) - <http://sers.pa.gov/Contact-DB-plan.html> (Select the Regional Office according to university location.)
- Fidelity Investments (ARP) - <https://digital.fidelity.com/prgw/digital/wos/Appointments> (Use employer name "Pennsylvania State System of Higher Educ".)
- TIAA - www.tiaa.org/schedulenow-passhe

Deferred Compensation Program and Tax Sheltered Annuity – Information is available at <http://www.passhe.edu/inside/HR/syshr/retirement/Pages/Voluntary-Retirement-Plans.aspx>. These are voluntary programs designed to help you supplement your retirement income. Enrollment is optional and you may enroll at any time.

Basic Group Life Insurance – The Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education offers all permanent employees' automatic enrollment in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's group life insurance program administered by MetLife.

- ☐ Information on the basic group life insurance can be found here.

Voluntary Term Life Insurance (VGLIP) – You may enroll in life insurance through the VGLIP on your date of hire. To receive guaranteed coverage amounts without having to provide evidence of good health, enter your election in ESS through My First Days within your first 30 days of hire. You may choose to enroll in VGLIP later, but your enrollment and coverage amount would be subject to review by the insurance company for evidence of insurability.

- ☐ Information on the VGLIP program's eligibility, cost, and coverage can be found here.

Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) – You may enroll in AD&D coverage on your date of hire. You are only able to enroll in AD&D during your first 30 days of employment.

- ☐ Information on AD&D cost and coverage can be found here.

Long Term Disability Insurance (LTD) – This plan will pay a benefit up to 60% of your monthly covered earnings if you become disabled as a result of a covered injury or illness and can no longer perform the duties of your regular occupation. If you elect coverage now, the effective date will be your date of hire and coverage will be guaranteed issued.

The cost of the benefit is based on your annual salary and the benefit waiting period. To enroll in this coverage, enter your election in ESS through My First Days within 30 days of your date of hire. If you choose to enroll later, enrollment will require evidence of insurability and coverage is subject to the insurance company's approval.

- ☐ Click here for additional information on the LTD coverage.

Flexible Spending Accounts – A Flexible Spending Account (FSA) is an account you set up to prefund your anticipated, eligible medical expenses that are normally not covered by your insurance or dependent care (daycare) expenses. With an FSA, you benefit from having less taxable income each pay date thus, more spendable income.

- ☐ If you are interested in participating, review the information at FSA Plan Information then your election through ESS My First Days within your first 30 days of hire.

State Employee Assistance Program (SEAP) (automatic enrollment – no action required on your part) – The Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education participates in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's employee assistance program. State System employees and their family members are eligible to receive up to six free confidential counseling sessions to evaluate concerns and determine the best referral. The benefit renews each year. Services are available 24 hours a day, 7 days per week by calling 1-800-692-7459. The services provided by SEAP are strictly confidential—the PASSHE will not be notified unless you provide written consent.
