

Field Experiences on Campus

Instead of an internships agreement, the program/department where the field experience is being completed must send a letter to the academic department granting academic credit. The letter should contain the following information:

- Department/Program name that is the site of the field experience
- Name of Student
- Date of field experience
- Number of hours worked weekly
- Number of credits
- Brief overview of duties