ABOUT THE PROGRAM

This program is designed to be a fifth-year of study beyond the undergraduate preparation in special education or in a general education area. It provides for a continuation of studies initiated during undergraduate preparation, and permits students to develop state-of-the-art competencies in the field of special education. General education teachers with certification in early childhood, elementary education or a PK-12 certification such as music, art, physical education, etc. are eligible for this program.

For the 7-12 Special Education Program entrance requirements include a secondary content certification such as English, math, history, etc. or a PK-12 cert in an area such as music, art, physical education, etc. Professionals who possess an early childhood or elementary education certification only are not eligible for the 7-12 Special Education Program.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SRU's Master Teacher Program in Special Education offers:

- 100% online program ideal for the working professional
- World class faculty considered to be the leaders in Special Education in Pennsylvania
- A curriculum grounded in theory and research supported by a practical hands-on approach
- Pennsylvania Department of Education approved and aligned with the standards from the Council of Exceptional Children
- An option to complete the program in one calendar year

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

All applicants must submit the following materials along with a completed online graduate application and non-refundable application fee:

1. Official undergraduate degree transcript(s) and any graduate transcripts.
2. Copy of teaching certification, a Pennsylvania certificate is not required
3. Resume
4. Two letters of recommendation: One from a faculty member with knowledge of the applicant's academic abilities and one from a professional reference, i.e. school administrator, teacher, or supervisor with knowledge of the applicant's professional attributes or two from professional references.

Unconditional admission may be offered to applicants who submit acceptable credentials as listed above, and who have earned an undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher (based on a 4.0 scale). Applicants who do not meet all of the above criteria may be offered conditional admission upon recommendation of the graduate coordinator and approval by the Director of Graduate Admissions.
