Helping Your Student Succeed at SRU

David Wilmes
Associate Provost for Student Success
Our goal:
To help students reach their potential and succeed at SRU and beyond

Student Success
How we do this:

- Building and maintaining safe, inclusive and healthy environments
- Assisting students with developing proactive strategies for avoiding and overcoming roadblocks so they can reach their full potential

Student Success
You can help your student by:

- Encouraging them to get involved in at least one student organization
- Having them meet with a Success Coach if they are struggling socially or academically
- Advising them to stay active by visiting the Rec Center or playing intramurals

Student Success
You can help your student by:

- Telling them to go to the Health Center if they get sick or hurt
- Having them meet with a wellness peer if they are struggling with stress/emotions
- Encouraging them to eat their fruits and vegetables
- Getting them to attend class!

Student Success
You can help your RESIDENT student by:

- Advising them to deal with roommate and friend conflicts face-to-face
- Encouraging them to stay on campus the first four weekends of the semester
- Telling them to seek out their Community Advisor (CA) if they have concerns or are struggling with being away from home

Student Success
You can help your student by:

- Encouraging them to reach out to their academic advisor early and visit faculty during their office hours
- Listening and supporting them when they make mistakes
- Empowering them to take ownership of their collegiate experience
Student Counseling Center
Provides short-term counseling to students through the social adjustment and psychological challenges they face during their decisive college years
